JANUARY 14, 1961

The heavenly atmosphere above serves as a perfect showcase for one of the country's hottest young talents, Bobby Rydell, who assists The Wurlitzer Company with the introduction of its brand new Model "2500" phonograph which is being made available in 100, 104 and 200 selections. The new phonographs will be premiered for operators across the country this week. Rydell, who has been winning raves for his versatile performances on TV, continues to ride high on the charts with an unbroken chain of top hits to his credit. This week the Cameo label issued Bobby's newest single coupling "Good Time Baby" and "Cherie". The vocalist is currently on the LP best seller list with "Bobby's Greatest Hits".

THE BIG SELLING MONTHS ARE HERE!

At a time when a great many gift and luxury item industries take a forced post-Christmas rest, the record industry heads into its strongest season.

Hot new singles by top-name artists, which record companies held back for fear they might get lost in the Christmas confusion, are now hitting the market full blast. As a result of these exciting new releases, air play during the past week has been extremely refreshing—a factor sure to result in heavy store traffic.

In the album department, all of the companies have unloaded their big guns with some magnificent packages destined to end up high atop the best seller lists. Dealers and jobbers are now being offered some of the most tempting album discount deals and “buy-now-pay-later” plans the companies have ever designed—all of which should result in a tremendous buying period during the remainder of this month. Such special merchandising campaigns in combination with strong new product will no doubt give a much welcomed boost to every level of the record business.

The tremendous number of phonographs sold every Christmas always makes its biggest impression on the record industry in the early months of the new year since there is nothing more frustrating than a new stereo set owner who has no records.

Add to this the “delightful” cold weather (just what the record industry's doctor ordered) which forces everyone to spend more time indoors, and you have another important factor responsible for the swinging record season we can expect to enjoy.

Record manufacturers are doing most everything possible to help the retailer and jobber reap the maximum benefit available. Consumer and trade advertising, special promotions, deluxe displays are all being offered.

It is imperative that the distributor—the local contact between the manufacturers and the retail outlets—arouse the excitement the companies feel about their new product among the people who sell to the consumer. And it is equally important that the dealers follow through with the enthusiasm directly to the consumer.

It should be a big winter.

FACTS ABOUT THE 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ ALBUM SINGLE

- 1 Twenty-nine record manufacturers are today releasing 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ stereo 7" singles from best-selling albums—and more are coming.
- 2 Record sales to the public—45 vs. 33 $\frac{1}{3}$: today, 85 per cent of all record sales are 33 $\frac{1}{3}$'s. In dollar volume, 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ album records outsell singles 7 to 1.
- 3 Records: Many of today's greatest sellers are available—for coin-phonograph use—only as 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ album singles.
- 4 Phonographs: Seeburg, and Seeburg alone, is factory-built to intermix both 45's and 33 $\frac{1}{3}$'s.
- 5 Only Seeburg gives you full automatic intermix with no extra gadgets, no center-hole plugs, no conversion kits.
- 6 The coast-to-coast sensation, ARTIST OF THE WEEK, is a Seeburg exclusive. It brings to the coin phonograph, for the first time, the record industry's top salesman—the full-color album cover. It sells records by the million. It sells your music!
- 7 Through this ARTIST OF THE WEEK program, only the Seeburg operator can give a location its choice, every week of ten new selections, all by the same artist, from that artist's top 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ stereo album.
- 8 Seeburg also gives you the newest and best in location sales aids—including the portable, attention-getting "Sales-Mate" film strip that shows the location owner what you can do for his business.
- 9 Seeburg keeps you out in front with, 1st, the means to attract to the location more of the post-teenage public—more substantial "music customers." And 2nd, Seeburg gives you the phonograph and the merchandising plans that—whatever the trend in the public's music preferences—will insure the profits of both operator and location alike.

"Only those records best suited for commercial use are reviewed by THE CASH BOX"

The Cash Box Pick of the Week

"WHERE THE BOYS ARE" (2:37) [Alson BMI—Greenfield, Sedaka]
"NO ONE" (2:45) [Efsee BMI—Pomus, Shuman]
CONNIE FRANCIS (MGM 12971)

The thrush should easily continue her vocal queen role during the new year (she captured top honors in the '60 poll of the juke box ops conducted by The Cash Box) with her latest MGM platter. It's the title tune of her up-coming pic, "Where The Boys Are," and it's an ultra-lovely ballad that should be soaring in the coming weeks. More warm, beautiful ballad sounds on the "No One" half. Watch it too. Stan Appelbaum's fine ork-choral work rounds out both sides.

"GOOD TIME BABY" (2:09) "CHERIE" (2:14)
[Lowe ASCAP— [Lowe ASCAP—
Mann, Lowe, Appell] Mann, Lowe, Appell]
BOBBY RYDELL (Cameo 186)

The talented songster, whose recent hit-revival campaign has proven quite successful ("Sway," and "Volare") has a change-of-pace here. Both sides are newcomers. They're the thumping delighter, "Good Time Baby," and the rock-a-cha, "Little Darlin'" —flavored "Cherie" (with an effective mid-deck recitation). Sparkling choral-ork supports on this take-your-pick pairing.

"THEM THAT GOT" (2:47) "I WONDER" (2:31)
[Ray Charles BMI—Harper] [Leeds ASCAP—Grant, Leveen]
RAY CHARLES (ABC-Paramount 10141)

Charles will more than likely have another double-barreled money-maker in follow-up to the "Ruby"—"Hard Hearted Hannah" duo. One end of his new ABC-Paramount pairing, "Them That Got," is an inviting middle beat rhythm entry. The other, "I Wonder," is a heartfelt, slow paced blueser with a fine assist by the Raelets. Two more winners for the great stylist.

"(BOO HOO) I'M GONNA CRY" (2:10)
[Roosevelt, Lloyd-Logan BMI—Covay, Berry, Price]
"I MADE YOU CRY" (2:29) [Pri-Gan BMI—Price, Logan]
LLOYD PRICE (ABC-Paramount 10177)

Looks like Lloyd Price's gonna "Cry" all the way to the bank with this one. Tabbed "(Boo Hoo) I'm Gonna Cry," it's a weeper in the driving-blues Price tradition. The Bob Mersey-led ork-choral crew back up in ultra-commercial fashion. More happy-sounding 'crying' on the dandy up beat companion piece.

"LEAVE MY KITTEN ALONE" (2:27) [Medal BMI—Turner]
"TOKEN OF LOVE" (1:47) [Big Bopper, Aladdin BMI—Harris]
JOHNNY PRESTON (Mercury 71761)

Preston, whose chain of hits in '60 helped him become the 'most promising vocalist (in The Cash Box ops poll), should firmly establish himself in '61 with his first for the year, "Leave My Kitten Alone." Loads of meows and teen-appealing sounds are packed into this staggered beat rocker. Very pretty beat-ballad undercut also has the chart goods. Both sides are from artist's "Come Rock With Me" LP.

"WHEELS" (2:03) [Dundee BMI—Torres, Stephens]
"ORANGE BLOSSOM SPECIAL" (2:32) [Leeds ASCAP—Rouse]
BILLY VAUGHN (Dot 16174)

The Billy Vaughn crew follows its recent coin-catching "Theme From The Sundowners" ride with another that looks like money-in-the-bank for all concerned. It's a delightful, bubbly cover of the String-A-Longs' up-and-coming instrumental click, "Wheels." Could share heavily in the final take. The "Orange Blossom Special" rolls along with some mighty fancy fiddlin' flipside.

"KEEP YOUR HANDS OFF OF HIM" (2:30)

"HUSH, SOMEBODY'S CALLING MY NAME" (2:20)

It's a fast moving, string-filled bit of advice, tabbed "Keep Your Hands Off Of Him," that Damita belts out with solid sales authority. Flip's a real catchy romantic finger-snapper that can also step into the big-time. The Mike Stewart Singers and Belford Hendricks' ork lend two stellar showcases.

(B) "I LOVE BEING HERE WITH YOU" (2:45) [Denslow ASCAP—Lee, Schluger] More of the same kind of Lee swinging.

GRADY LEWIS (Colonial 7010)

(B) "RUNAWAY LOVER" (1:44) [Bentley BMI—Lewis] Generally effective sound to this medium-beat vocal portrayal of a haunting folk-type romantic.

(B) "SAD STORY" (2:34) [Bentley BMI—Lester, Lewis] Material in a similar vein is done with a slow-beat. Label is handled by London Records.

GUY (DADDY COOL) DARRELL (Warwick 614)

"GONE ARE THE DAYS" (2:21) [Lar-Bell BMI—Larson]

THE FOUR PREPS (Capitol 4508)

It's the Four Preps who capture the light-hearted flavor of the tune. Jocks'll love it. "Gone Are The Days" is a soft, teen-angled romantic up-dating of "Old Black Joe." A two-sided listening treat.

"LOST LOVE" (2:20) [Eldorado, Hidle BMI—Barnum]

"HALLELUJAH" (2:00) [Eldorado, Hidle BMI—Barnum]

H. B. BARNUM (Eldo 111)

"CRY LIKE THE WIND" (1:58)

[Stratford ASCAP—Styne, Comden, Green]

Backing, supplied by the Jim Tyler ork-chorus, has that winning teen-directed rock-a-cha-cha format. Gal prettily breezes thru the haunting ballad from "Do Re Mi" on the lower stanza.

Warwick recording artist Lola Fisher, the 'Cinderella' gal of "My Fair Lady," to open a 4-week engagement at Al Burnett's swank Society Restaurant in jolly old London, Eng.

Duane Eddy, whose latest Jamie smasher is the title-theme from the big "Pepe" pic, has signed up with GAC, accordin' to Mike Mullaney. . . . Ray Meinberg on the phone to tell us that the Cyclones' revival of "Secret Love" (Top Rank) is already happening out Detroit-way. . . . Promotion man Milton Karle infos that Frank Chacksfield's London newie, "Madeleine" (from the "A French Mistress" pic), has been pic-hitted at WINS, WMGM, and WMCA and adds that Ivan Mogull has a potential hit over here in the big Scandinavian tune, "Just A Letter To Me You Won't Send," waxed by Lill Babs on Columbia and Greta Sonck on Colpix. Savoy's Joe Galkin plugging away on three packages—"An Evening At Home With Charlie Parker," "The Fabulous Songs Of Jimmy Scott" and "Blues, Candy and Big Maybelle." . . . Signature thrush Madeline Kern, whose current release is "Danny," heads down to Philly, this week, for a 2-week stand at the Drexelbrook Country Club. While in town the lark'll tape a Dick Clark 1/15 segment.

News notes from UA include the following: Harold Flender, featured on the "Candid Telefun" LP, back from a trip to Israel and Paris; Gene Pitney set for 8 weeks of p.a.'s thru the south to plug his "(I Wanna) Love My Life Away" Musicor click—he also does a 2/3 Dick Clark stint and Ferrante & Teicher, the "Exodus" duo, to begin a concert trek starting mid-February. . . . Phillip Orlick making the local radio and TV rounds with his Ember debut, "Hello Stranger." . . . Warren Covington & the Tommy Dorsey ork playing dates up and down the east coast this month and next. . . . Thrush Felicia Sanders joins forces with comic Milt Kamen to head up the new show at the Bon Soir, beginning 1/10. Guitarist Tiger Haynes & the Three Flames 'll share the spotlight. . . . Probably the youngest song-writing team in show-biz is Irving Fields' 8-year-old son Mark and his 6-year-old daughter Diane, who collaborated on two tunes, "Mark's Melody" and "Big Chief Pow-Wow."

If you really want to start off the new year with a good feeling, then send along the cheers to Doc Berger, who's starting to come around following his long, long illness. He's at 931 E. 28th St., Brooklyn 10, N.Y. . . . Correct tag of the Roosevelt-published Lloyd Price ABC-Paramount platter is "(Boo Hoo) I'm Gonna Cry." . . . Lionel Hampton putting on a new Glad push for his vocal on "Exodus" (not the same tune as the current best seller). . . . The Weavers are set for a concert at N.Y.U. 1/14. . . . Frank Comstock signed to conduct the score for the up-coming pic "The Last Time I Saw Archie." . . . The PRS System, of Dobbs Ferry, N.Y., announced the availability of a new marking tape which is self-adhesive and pressure-sensitive. Its purpose is to identify any kind of program material on the magnetic pre-recorded tape itself. . . . Robert Goulet, who plays Lancelot in Lerner & Loewe's "Camelot," made his American TV bow on the 1/8 Ed Sullivan outing. Bob was the star of Canada's CBC-TV'er, "Showtime," for the past 3 years.

We hear from "T.J." Johnson that he and the Session Records' rockin' band, the Hudson Valley Boys, averaged 1,200 per nite during their 3 one-nite stands in the N.Y.C. and Westchester area last week. "T.J." adds that the boys were signed to a long term pact to play Sat. nites at the Ft. Hill Restaurant in Scarsdale, N.Y. . . . Sharing in the glory of "Ballad Of A Soldier" at the Murray Hill Theatre is a present day 'silent' film comedy called "Bowl Of Cherries," which fills out the bill. Dick Wernick (exclusive penner for Mills Music) has done the score for this film, which incidentally, uses captions and music as in the bygone era of silents. Also to Wernick's credit is the score for "The Nativity" which appeared on the series "Lamp Unto My Feet" on CBS January 1st. Dick was formerly musical director for the Winnepeg Ballet Co.

Record Ramblings

CHICAGO:

The new year started out with a bang over at Decca's local camp. Everyone's flipping over the new Brenda Lee pairing of "Emotions" b/w "I'm Learning About Love." Promo man Frank Scardino tells us it's another two-sided smash for the cute little belter. Also holding his own in the two-sided hit department is Jackie Wilson with his current "My Empty Arms" and "The Tear Of The Year" (Brunswick). . . . Ronko Records' Ronnie Kole planed in last week for sessions with Ron Malo of Ter-Mar Recording Studios. Ronnie's waxing of "Black Swan" is creating mucho action around New Orleans and his new instrumental album is due for release shortly. . . . Delfi-Donna's Earl Glickin, before taking off on another cross country trek, buzzed 'bout increased activity on Redd Dogg's "Who's Lonesome Tonight" and "Rockin' Moon Dog" by Chucky Chandler and The Chandeliers. . . . Duke Hazlett, a dead ringer and singer for Sinatra, began a swingin' stint at Le Bistro 1/3.

PHILLIP ORLICK

Garlan's Kent Beauchamp reports great happenings with Don Costa's latest "The Misfits" (UA); Gene Pitney's "I'm Gonna Love My Life Away" (Musicor) and the big selling "Exodus" LP on United Artists. . . . Local teenage group, The Gen-Tones, really tore it up on the Dick Clark TV'er 1/2 when they did the "Hawaiian War Rock," which is the flip side of their Scarlet waxing "Man With The Golden Arm." . . . Rudy Orisek, host of WGN-TV'er "International Cafe," invited the entire cast of Athens Cafe's Grecian Revue to headline his 1/14 show. . . . A New Year toast to glib columnist John Quinlan, who toasted (and roasted) the names around town in his hilarious Xmas column. . . . Prestige song stylist, Etta Jones, riding the national charts with "Don't Go To Strangers," made her Chi night club debut last week at the popular Counterpoint Jazz Supper Club. She's set for three weeks. . . . Sam Cerami's all agog over Maxine Brown's "All In My Mind" (Nomar) which is #68 on this week's top 100. . . . Congrats to Tom Haviland who replaces Marty Hogan as WCFL chief shortly.

Capitol thrush Jeanne Black scoring with "Oh How I Miss You Tonight," is set for a Windy City visit 1/11 and a tour of the deejay circuit squired by Barney Fields. Some of the diskery's newbies shaping up in the area are Janice Harper's "A Little Love Can Be A Dangerous Thing," Simon Crumb's "Enormity In Motion" and "Milord" by Frank Pourcel, which has been a big hit in Europe. . . . Folk singer, Bob Gibson, opened at the Gate of Horn 1/3. . . . RCA Distribs' Marty Hirsch is pleased as punch with chart positions of Neil Sedaka's "Calendar Girl" and The Browns' "Send Me The Pillow You Dream On." . . . Jerry Allan, a Chi visitor last week, reports that he enjoyed a great '60 promoting several big sound track record albums for such box office smashes as "Porgy & Bess," "The Snow Queen," "Can-Can" and "North To Alaska." . . . A low bow to local publicist Bob Howe who's annual holiday greeting to the trade is made in the form of a contribution to CARE. . . . Roulette slicings making it in this area, according to local emissary Ralph Cox, are "Charlena" by Cognacs; "Cold, Cold Heart" by Ronnie Hawkins; and Jimmie Rodgers' "Little Shepherd Of Kingdom Come."

West coast artist, Barry Martin, bows on RCA-Victor with "Why'd I Have To Fall In Love With You For" and Stan Pat tells us local jocks are giving it plenty of spins. Another of the diskery's recent releases crowding the local airways is "Big Daddy," an instrumental by Boots Randolph (Boots on sax). Watch for new album releases by Chet Atkins, Toni Harper, The Limelites and Neil Sedaka (RCA). . . . Lovely Jane Morgan, in at the swank Camellia House of The Drake Hotel. . . . Lynn Hollings of Holiday in Jazz (WSBC-FM) narrates the "Teenagers Love Promises" outing by Juanita Rogers and Mr. V's Five Joys on the Pink Clouds label. . . . Arnold Records' Carl Davis is all excited over potential climbers "I Love To Make Love To You" by Paul Evans (Carlton) and "Pony Time" by the Goodtimers and he's boasting of socko sales on The Ramrods' "Ghost Riders In The Sky" (Amy). . . . Winners at J. H. Martin Distribs, a la Alan Bress, include "I'm Hurtin'" by Roy Orbison; "The Theme From The Tunes Of Glory" by the Cambridge Strings and "Chills and Fever" by Ronnie Love. A new Billy Vaughn deck will be out shortly.

LOS ANGELES:

Everyone at Era Records all excited about the just out Libby and Sue item, "He Had Pretty Eyes," already grabbing solid air-play in So. Calif. . . . Gary Crosby recently completed his initial package for Project Records, owned by Bing Crosby Enterprises, which is skedded for release this month by MGM diskery. . . . Ronnie Deauville, whose singing career was halted five years ago by polio, is out with his debut pairing on the Kaybo label, "April Sings" b/w "Day In, Day Out," with all proceeds going to the National Polio Foundation. . . . The Platters just back from two-weeks in Mexico doing TV, night club, theatre and auditorium dates.

Madison Records' "To A Soldier Boy" featuring The Tassels, which was a hit a couple of years back everywhere except the West Coast, has now been re-released and is breaking locally. . . . Columbia Records starting off the New Year with several outings featuring their newest contractees—Johnny Williams' "Theme From Checkmate," "Strange Man" by Hannah Dean, and Aretha

Album Reviews

"JUDY CANOVA" with Mel Blanc, Hans Conreid, Verna Felton, others. RCA Camden CAL-662, $1.98

Content: The Judy Canova Shows feature Sheldon Leonard, Joe Kearns and others mentioned above. Cover: Striking caricature of the famed comedienne is in jet, against an all-white background. Standout. Performance: The Canova comedy radio show was corny, unsophisticated, and basic but it was also very funny. Some of the lines are so simple they're hilarious. Great situations with toppers such as Blanc make for fine listening and pleasant reminiscing. Commercial Value: Judy's a big name to this day via the state fair route and other outlets.

"PEER GYNT SUITE—EDWARD GRIEG" Wilhelm Von Luden Conducts Hamburg Intl. Philharmonic Orch., Tops 6010, $1.98

Content: Peer Gynt Suite Nos. 1 and 2; Opus 46, 55. Cover: American Home Library package is used with bookfold opening to color repro of illustration which appears framed on frontpiece. Quality merchandising. Performance: Grieg's work is presented here in a tasteful manner and reflects the simplicity of its structure. Commercial Value: A basic LP for any classical library and a bargain at the price.

"KATE SMITH SINGS FOLK SONGS" Tops—9706S, $1.98

Content: "The Wreck Of The Old '97," "Scarlet Ribbons," "On Top Of Old Smokey," 7 others. Cover: Color art of the vocalist surrounded by color cartoons. Performance: The lark is presented here in another surrounding and the result is as pleasant as her standard fare. Commercial Value: Should satisfy the Kate Smith legions of followers.

"THE WORLD'S BIGGEST POLKA BAND IN A POLKA EXTRAVAGANZA" Somerset P-11700, $1.98

Content: "Beer Barrel Polka," "Penna. Polka," "Ha-Ha-Ha Polka," 9 others. Cover: Devoted almost entirely to the word "polka"—in color. Performance: The sides, recorded in Germany, treat the polka tunes to a full bodied production, resulting in a lush high-level orchestral sound. Commercial Value: Polkas sell and this package has a twist that could add to its attraction.

POPULAR PICKS OF THE WEEK

"SINATRA'S SWINGIN' SESSION!"—Frank Sinatra—Capitol SW 1491

A group of early Sinatra memorables are given the big swinging treatment by singer this time around. Nelson Riddle is right in there in his indispensable role as co-swinging, and together they romp delightfully through "When You're Smiling," "S'posin'," "Should I," "You Do Something To Me," "It all Depends On You" and seven others. Will generate the usual quick sales action.

"MEMORIES ARE MADE OF THIS"—Ray Conniff His Orchestra and Chorus—Columbia CL 1574

Another refreshing, enjoyable concert with the Ray Conniff crew. Here the familiar shuffle-beat ork and wordless chorus offer pleasant journeys through "Tammy," "Moments To Remember," "My Foolish Heart," "Unchained Melody" and "Three Coins In The Fountain," and other memorable pop hits of recent years. Deck adds another laurel to the Conniff LP crown.

"B.M.O.C."—Best Music On/Off Campus—The Brothers Four—Columbia CL 1578

A potpourri of folk songs and Tin Pan Alley-originated folkish tunes are sung with the exuberance and enthusiasm of the youthful quartet. Selections include "I Am A Roving Gambler," "St. James Infirmary," "The Green Leaves Of Summer," "Beautiful Brown Eyes" and "With You Fair Maid." "B.M.O.C." originally Big Man On Campus and rewritten here to apply to music, very well defines the group's fandom.

"CIRCULATE"—Neil Sedaka—RCA Victor LPM-2317

This album contains one of the best all-around collections of songs in any recent package and Neil Sedaka gives them a well-paced, commendably legit performance. He is guided expertly through the set by the lively and inventive arrangements of Stan Applebaum. Tunes include "All The Way," "We Kiss In A Shadow," "Look To The Rainbow," "A Felicidade" (from "Black Orpheus") and "You Took Advantage Of Me." Has powerful appeal to all markets.

"CHET ATKINS' WORKSHOP"—Chet Atkins—RCA Victor LPM-2232

One of the most versatile guitarists on the scene is Chet Atkins, as has been proven in previous Victor LP's and singles. Here, with just a modicum of rhythm backing, he delves into various musical expressions. His sensitive musicianship is displayed on such tracks as "Lambeth Walk," "In A Little Spanish Town," "Bonita," "Hot Mocking Bird" and "Tammy." Has all the ingredients of a big album.

"TONIGHT: IN PERSON"—The Limelites—RCA Victor LPM-2272

This invigorating trio of "egghead" folksingers make their Victor debut with a live session cut in performance at Hollywood's Ash Grove. The enthusiastic reception given them by the audience is proof of the excitement the group generates. The unusual assortment of tunes which comprise the Limelites' repertoire includes "The Monks of St. Bernard," "Madera, M'Dear," "Rumania, Rumania," "Molly Malone" and "Seven Daffodils." Comedy is also an important ingredient in their work.

"THE UNSINKABLE JONAH JONES SWINGS 'THE UNSINKABLE MOLLY BROWN'"—Capitol ST 1532

The bright, tuneful Meredith Wilson tunes for the smash show gets the upbeat going-over by the Jones crew. The leader's trumpet is in fine mellow, muted form here and retains its easy-to-listen-to pop and jazz appeal. Accent is on the light side for "Belly Up To The Bar, Boys," "Bea-u-ti-ful People Of Denver," "Are You Sure," "I'll Never Say No" and "I Ain't Down Yet" among others. Has the strong appeal for a long ride.

"STAY"—Maurice Williams and the Zodiacs—Herald HLP 1014

Lad and group that scored with this set's title tune bow here in a display of teen rhythmic know-how. They render "Stay," their latest single coupling, "Always" (not the Irving Berlin tune) and "I Remember" plus eleven others including "Nearness Of You," "But Not For Me" and "So Fine." Has power to score with the teeners.

"HI, WE'RE THE MIRACLES"—Tamla 220

Group's now scoring with "Shop Around;" debut LP-wise here in a lineup of solidly swinging teen-oriented tunes. Set includes "Way Over There," "Who's Lovin' You," "Your Love," "Money" and "Cause I Love You." Lots of exciting rhythmic activity for the teen audience.

"LES BAXTER'S BROADWAY '61"—Capitol ST 1480

Broadway's four new musicals provide Les Baxter with bevy of superior melodies for this instrumental outing. The big ork delivers a tuneful, musically interesting salute to "Artificial Flowers" and "I Wonder What It's Like" from "Tenderloin," "I Ain't Down Yet" from "Molly Brown," "El Sombrero" and "Angelina" from "Wildcat" and seven tunes (part in medley form) from "Camelot." Solid ork entry with a pre-sold audience.

"I BELIEVE"—Mahalia Jackson—Columbia CL 1549

Gospel songs of personal conviction have been gathered here for a rousing display by the great gospel artist. An ork and choir, under the direction of Johnny Williams, supply stirring backgrounds in the gospel tradition. It is all Mahalia's show as she delves invigoratingly and convincingly into such strong-willed inspirational songs as "My God And I," "I Asked The Lord," "Always Look Up," "I'm Grateful" and "Holding My Saviour's Hand." Has tremendous strength in jazz and gospel circles.

"BOB EBERLY & HELEN O'CONNELL"—Warner Bros. W 1403

The late Thirties are recalled here in a reunion between the two vocalists who gained fame with the Jimmy Dorsey ork. All of their duet vocal hits are displayed here in new stereo recordings, among them "Green Eyes," "Tangerine," "Amapola" and "Yours." Deck also includes some of their individual hit performances. Clarinet work by Skeets Herfurt is acceptable for the original Jimmy Dorsey solos, and Lou Busch's arrangements are cleverly reminiscent. Lots of sentimental value in this outing.

"THE FABULOUS SONGS OF JIMMY SCOTT"—Savoy MG 12150

An auspicious disk bow is taken by this songster. His high-pitched voice is coupled with a deep inner sincerity which he communicates in definite terms through such material as "Sometimes I Feel Like A Motherless Child," "I'm Afraid The Masquerade Is Over," "The Way You Look Tonight" and "What Good Would It Be." Songster has talent and knows how to use it.

"PIANO ITALIANO"—George Greeley—Warner Bros. W 1402

Pianist Greeley displays a dozen Italian and Italian-American melodies in concert style. Such tunes as "Three Coins In The Fountain," "Come Back To Sorento," "O Sole Mio" and "Arrivederci Roma" are rendered with piano grace and full ork lushness with large helpings of continental flavoring. Good mood music listening.

1960

"1960 NEWPORT FOLK FESTIVAL"—Theodore Bikel, Oscar Brand, Will Holt, Oranim-Zabar Troupe featuring Geula Gill—Elektra EKL-189

Elektra has the good fortune of capturing the performances of four of its artists at last year's Newport Folk Festival. Standard-bearer Theodore Bikel is heard in "Al Harim," "Mi Caballo" and three others; Brand offers three, among which are "Talking Atomic Blues" and "Horse With A Label;" Will Holt delivers "Three Jovial Huntsmen," "M.T.A." and the Oranim-Zabar Troupe displays "Bukhara" and "Ayil Ayil." Together, they present a program bursting with effervescence and good spirits. Choice folk item.

"JOE WILMAN SHOWS YOU HOW TO BOWL YOUR BEST"—Epic LB 2700

Champion bowler Wilman is extremely clear and concise in his instructions to bowlers, starting from the simple yet important way of fitting a bowling ball to the more advanced methods of picking up spares. Deck is coordinated with photos in the double-fold liner. Bowling is America's fastest growing sport—a true family affair—and this session can cash in handsomely on the trend.

"THERE'LL BE AN 'OTT TIME IN THE OLD TOWN TONIGHT"—Tommy Ott—Hifi R723

Ott is a ragtime organist. He plays happy music with a flair for the strictly entertaining feature of music. The selections he bangs out here include "After You've Gone," "Hindustan," "Sentimental Gentleman From Georgia" and "At The Jazz Band Ball."

"THE INCENDIARY PIANO OF PERUCHIN!"—GNP 50

Peruchin, a piano virtuoso in the Latin school, offers a sparkling program of South-of-the-border music. With stimulating Latin rhythms setting the pace, he delves enticingly into "La Mulata Rumbera," "Tres Lindas Cubanas," "Guajira Melodica," "Out Of Nowhere" and eight others. For exotic listening and/or spirited dancing.

"VARIATIONS ON BEAUTIFUL DREAMER AND FRERE JACQUES"—Heinz Sandauer conducting the Austrian State Concert Orchestra—Request RLP 10046

Sandauer has arranged two extended works based upon the songs "Beautiful Dreamer" and "Frere Jacques." Basically classical in approach, the works, each on one side of the album, have intrinsic mood music appeal. Unusual and fascinating production.

JAZZ PICKS OF THE WEEK

"CAMELOT"—Andre Previn and His Trio—Columbia CL 1569

Lerner & Loewe's "Camelot" gets its first jazz adaptation and the vital, invigorating things that Andre Previn does to the score should serve as a high standard for the many more jazz sets that are inevitable. He's got Red Mitchell (bass) and Frank Capp (drums) to supply the rhythmic propulsion for his pianistic wanderings through "I Wonder What The King Is Doing Tonight," "What Do Simple Folks Do," "The Lusty Month Of May" and five others. Has the selling power in artist name and hit show appeal.

"BRUBECK & RUSHING"—The Dave Brubeck Quartet featuring Jimmy Rushing—Columbia CL 1553

Fusing the talents of the granddaddy of the big city blues singer with the extreme modernism of the Brubeck style might be a cause for reservation about the results. But this session proves a surprising success, and without compromise on the part of the individuals. Rushing's big masculine voice is a hearty joy on "There'll Be Some Changes Made," "Ain't Misbehavin'," "All By Myself," "River, Stay 'Way From My Door" while the Brubeck crew retains its modern feel in the solo passages. An experiment that pays off in entertainment.

SHELLY MANNE & HIS MEN AT THE BLACK HAWK 3

"SHELLY MANNE & HIS MEN AT THE BLACK HAWK, VOLUME 3"—Contemporary M 3579

The third volume of performance recordings by the Manne Men at San Francisco's Black Hawk feature three extended tracks, Cole Porter's "I Am In Love," transformed into a vigorously driving steamer, Golson's "Whisper Not" and a full side of "Black Hawk Blues." The front line of Joe Gordon (trumpet) and Richie Kamuca (tenor) again distinguishes itself in solo and ensemble work. Throughout, Shelly Manne is a relentless time-keeper. Another solid session in the series.

"THE INCOMPARABLE MUSIC OF ART TATUM"—Verve MG V-8332

From its seemingly limitless backlog of Tatum work, Verve once more offers a package of the great, late pianist's sides. This set includes "I Surrender Dear," "Don't Worry 'Bout Me," "Prisoner Of Love," and "Please Be Kind." Tatum had a knack for making even the most banal material (as some of the songs here are) appear great. If the market isn't already saturated with his work, this has sales possibilities.

"PLEASE, MR ORGAN PLAYER"—Milt Buckner—Argo LP 670

Sometimes jazz, sometimes rhythm & blues organist Milt Buckner offers a mixed program of swinging music. Instrumental complement includes alto, guitar, bass and drums, which, with Buckner striding out solidly, travel swiftly through "Sermonette," "Cry Me A River," "Round Midnight" and "Blue Prelude."

CLASSICAL PICKS OF THE WEEK

PROKOFIEFF: Concerto No. 3 in C; MacDowell: Concerto No. 2 in d minor—Van Cliburn, piano, Chicago Symphony Orchestra conducted by Walter Hendl—RCA Victor LM-2507

Two Cliburn standard repertoire pieces form the content of his fourth recording for Victor. The sweeping boldness of the Prokofiev work allows the young master ample room for virtuoso display of skill, while the MacDowell reveals the romanticism inherent in Cliburn's piano personality. Highly artistic and soundly commercial offering.

"THE BELOVED BJOERLING"—Volume One, Opera Arias 1936-1948—Capitol G 7239

Jussi Bjoerling's death last year was a tremendous loss to opera fans. Now Capitol has issued the first of a series of three commemorative albums of the great tenor's work. This set, comprising operatic selections from the years '36-'48, includes performances of the "Flower Song" from "Carmen," "Che Gelida Mania" from "La Boheme," "Vesti La Giubba" from "I Pagliacci" and other now historic selections.

PROKOFIEV: "Peter And the Wolf"; TCHAIKOVSKY: "Nutcracker Suite"—Leonard Bernstein, Narrator and conducting the New York Philharmonic—Columbia MS 6193

Leonard Bernstein adds his name to the illustrious list of narrators of the Prokofiev children's classic, entering the catalog as the only narrator-conductor in the lot. Having distinguished himself as an outstanding music lecturer to children on TV and in a Carnegie Hall concert series, Bernstein is a natural for this role. A brisk performance of selections from the "Nutcracker" completes a wonderful disk for the younger set.

VERDI: "La Traviata"—Victoria de Los Angeles, Carlo del Monte, Mario Sereni, Tullio Serafin conducting the Orchestra and Chorus of the Rome Opera House—Capitol SG-7234

This album of highlights from the complete work released earlier this year puts into the reach of many the brilliant tenor voice of Carlo del Monte, who sings the role of Alfredo. Victoria de Los Angeles, as Violetta, offers a standout performance too. A popular opera, always in demand.

"THE HUMOROUS WORLD OF JUSTIN WILSON"—Ember LP-801
Justin Wilson's world is that of the Cajuns, the faded French-Americans of southern Louisiana. And he describes this world in humorous, witty, and colorful Cajun dialect. It is a warm, friendly, ingratiating comedy album similar to some ways to the successful Dave Gardner LP's. Lots of good, clean fun for airplay and home listening. Could be a big item.

Comedy

"THE HUMOROUS WORLD OF JUSTIN WILSON"
Ember LP 801—Justin Wilson is a comic from Louisiana who tells his gently humorous and rather pleasantly old-fashioned stories in a Cajun dialect. The comedy is warm and friendly-like, untouched by Broadway-wise, and Wilson's style helps matters along in a rather amusing manner. An album that could grab sales through the Southern and Southwestern states, and even interest Northern big city comedy fans.

The Music REPORTER

"THE HUMOROUS WORLD OF JUSTIN WILSON"

Side splitting stories about Louisiana's Cajun people of whom Wilson is one. Much in demand as a convention speaker and after dinner entertainer, his personality on wax should now reach millions.

ALL THAT JAZZ

Jazz comes to ballet. Or vice-versa. Gunther Schuller's composition "Variants," commissioned by choreographer George Ballanchine for the New York Ballet Company will be premiered by the Modern Jazz Quartet with the New York City Center Ballet Company and orchestra in a series of six performances beginning January 4th at the City Center.

Schuller's "Variants" is in seven movements, consisting of an introduction for orchestra, solo variations for each member of the MJQ, a fifth variation for ensemble quartet, and the finale with quartet and orchestra. Schuller will conduct the orchestra and Melissa Hayden, Diana Adams, and Arthur Mitchell are among the principal dancers for the jazz-ballet production. This venture into the merging of traditional ballet and modern jazz represents a profluent achievement in John Lewis' efforts to extend modern jazz beyond its present boundaries.

Freddie Redd, Jackie McLean, Larry Ritchie and Michael Mattos are recreating their original stage roles in the film version of "The Connection" for producer Lewis Allen. The four musicians, who play piano, alto, drums and bass respectively, won plaudits for their work in Jack Gelber's award-winning off-Broadway stage success which deals with junkies and jazz. The film, shot entirely in New York (and now being edited), was directed by Shirley Clarke from Jack Gelber's screenplay.

Don Elliott (Nuttie Squirells, etc.) composed two campaign songs which were used by winning candidates in the recent elections. He composed songs for Governor-elect Terry Sanford of North Carolina and one for Senator Kennedy (lyrics by Steve Allen and Jane Harvey). Don has been invited to give a command performance of the Sanford song at the Governor's Inaugural. So far, no invitation yet from the White House.

Band Business bad? You couldn't prove it by Warren Covington and the Dorsey Band—either from the bookings or the crowds they draw. Concluding a successful return engagement at New York's Roosevelt Hotel, the band went into the studios for five dates for Decca to provide a backlog of material while they're out on the road. And they'll be on the road for quite a while, looking at their booking dates.

CORE (Congress of Racial Equality) is sponsoring the premiere public performance of the "Freedom Now" Suite written by Max Roach and Oscar Brown, Jr. The suite, already recorded for release on Candid Records (Cadence), will be heard in concert on Jan. 15th at Art D'Lugoff's Village Gate with the following featured personnel: the Max Roach Quintet, vocalist Abbey Lincoln, Nigerian drummer Olatunji (whom Herbie Mann brought back from Africa) and dancers Helena Walker and Jerome Jeffery. Coleman Hawkins is featured on the recorded version of the work, which is titled "We Insist!"

Candid Records continues to build up its catalog of artists and recordings while not having even one release on the market. Currently, the label has signed Abbey Lincoln; is preparing to record a program of original albums in Europe by Lucky Thompson, Kenny Clark, Martial Solal and Peter Trunk; is completing negotiations to release the "Treasury of Field Recordings" in the best recordings of traditional music; and arranging to record albums by such artists as Paul Bley, Pee Wee Russell, Phil Woods, Buell Neidlinger and Danny Barker. From the first views of what the label is doing we must conclude that they have made the strongest attempt to have a well-rounded, versatile catalog.

Jack Teagarden was honored Dec. 10th by his home town of Vernon, Texas. "Jack Teagarden Day" featured a parade and a civic luncheon headed by the mayor. The real highlight of the day occurred when the grand old man of the trombone sat in with the high school band (which he graduated from) followed by a two hour concert by Teagarden and his group at the Wilbarger Memorial Auditorium. Teagarden is currently appearing at the Tideland Motor Inn, Houston.

Danny Winchell Named Colpix Pop Singles Mgr.

NEW YORK—Colpix Records has announced the appointment of Danny Winchell as its pop singles manager. Winchell's activities will include A&R work and the search for new talent for the label.

Winchell, a singer himself, has varied experience in the business end of the record industry. He comes to Colpix after doing promotion work for Alpha Distributors here. He has been a music publisher rep, and has been associated, in the areas of promotion and record exploitation, with such artists as The Everly Bros., Andy Williams, Bob Newhart, Fabian, Frankie Avalon, Fats Domino, Ricky Nelson and others.

Han-Sig Sets 2 LP's For Jan. Issue

NEW YORK — Hanover-Signature Records bows its '61 line on Jan. 15 with an LP by comic Morey Amsterdam and the initial release in the label's new "9000" series.

The Amsterdam LP is titled "Yuk A Puk—Morey Amsterdam." The "9000" entry is a 2-disk documentary, "Great Moments At The U.N.," narrated by Dave Garroway. Idea for the latter LP was conceived by Bud Greenspan, writer and TV producer for the Gumbinner Advertising Agency. The Amsterdam package lists at $3.98, the U.N. set at $9.98. According to diskery sales chief Morris Diamond, distributors ordering the Amsterdam LP from "cover slicks have already given Amsterdam a solid jump over the initial reaction received on the smash Jose Jimenez album on Signature.

Lanin Saluted

In his five years with Epic, Lanin has sold over one and a half million albums. For this feat he was presented with a platinum disk and is being featured in the label's "Lester Lanin Month" (Jan.), which offers the consumer an opportunity to buy his latest album, "Lanin Plays Latin" at $2.98, mono or stereo.

Angel Issues 5 LP's

NEW YORK—Angel Records has bowed its '61 product with the release of five LP's including a complete version of Mozart's "The Marriage Of Figaro" and three entries in the label's monaural-only "Great Recordings of the Century" series.

The "Figaro" set is almost a twin to the label's release of last Oct., "Don Giovanni." Performers featured in both include conductor Carlo Maria Giulini, soprano Elisabeth Schwarzkopf, baritones Eberhard Wachter and Giuseppe Taddei and basso Piero Capuccilli.

The other Angel packages are: "Coloratura Arias"—Anna Moffo, soprano; "Wandering With The Obernkirchen Children's Choir"; following are the "Great" recordings: "Harpsichord Sonatas"—music by Domenico Scarlatti performed by the late Wanda Landowska; "Opera Recital"—Mattia Scarlatti, baritone; "Opera & Song Recital"—Tito Schipa, lyric tenor.

Victor's Schory's LP Tied-In With Drum Firm Promo

CHICAGO—William F. Ludwig Sr., president of Ludwig Drum Company here, has announced that his firm and RCA Victor will cooperate in a "hard-hitting" in-store display program for music dealers in Feb. and March.

The link between Ludwig and Victor is provided by Dick Schory's New Percussion Ensemble which uses Ludwig percussion instruments throughout. In one joint display, Victor pushes Schory's "Wild Percussion and Horns A-Plenty" and "Percussion! Music to Break Any Mood" albums, while Ludwig features its "Super-400" drum and 980 PC dance outfit which, together with all of the other percussion instruments in the Ludwig catalog, were used in the recordings.

Also included in the dealer display package are counter card reproductions and reprints of various Ludwig four-color advertisements, folders on the "Super-400" Drum and 980 PC outfit for mail use by dealers, and suggestions as to how to use the material most effectively as a sales tool at the store level.

The Ludwig-RCA program will also include trade and consumer advertising.

Capitol Offers Dealer LP Plans

HOLLYWOOD—Capitol Records Distributing Corp. (CRDC) is offering dealers a program of controlled 100-per-cent exchange privileges on all Capitol Jan. releases, plus a 10-per-cent discount on the Capitol popular and classical catalog.

Announcement of the Jan. program was made last week by J. K. Maitland, CRDC president, who stated that the discount and exchange privilege would apply to albums purchased from Jan. 3 through Jan. 27.

Dealers will also be allowed deferred billing and an additional two-per-cent discount for prompt payment, Maitland said.

Under the program, dealers may order as many as five copies of each new Jan. album with full 100-per-cent exchange protection, exchanges to be made on or before June 30. The 100-per-cent exchange privilege will apply to as many as 25 copies of the new Frank Sinatra album, "Sinatra's Swingin' Session".

The program applies only to Capitol LP's, not to tapes.

According to Maitland, a minimum of fifty LP disks, including at least two copies each of 16 different titles on the January release, must be ordered by dealers to qualify for the program.

CRDC will also offer dealers one hundred best-selling Angel albums on a controlled 100-per-cent-exchange basis, Maitland revealed.

In addition, dealers will be allowed deferred billing on Angel albums ordered under the exchange program from Jan. 3 through Jan. 27.

The exchange protection applies to as many as five copies of each album on Angel's "Top 100" list, with all exchanges to be made on or before June 30.

Columbia Transcriptions Expanded & Reorganized

NEW YORK—Columbia Transcriptions, the custom records department of Columbia Records, has been expanded and reorganized into Columbia Record Productions, according to an announcement by Albert Earl, administrative vice president, for the firm. "Rapidly" increasing sales and expanding potential prompted the reorganization, the announcement said.

Columbia Record Productions will operate in two specialized sales areas. Custom Records will promote sales and provide service to private labels and produce recorded material for all Federal agencies of the United States government. Special Products will promote sales of diversified products and services, including electrical transcriptions, studio services, premiums and promotions for industrial accounts, Auravision, tape and slide film.

Calvin Roberts, former director of Columbia Transcriptions, will head the Custom Records operation, and Albert Shulman, most recently general manager of Epic Records, will be director of special products.

Columbia Record Productions will utilize Columbia's new studio facilities in New York and Los Angeles and recently increased plant capacity in Los Angeles, Terre Haute, Indiana, Pitman, New Jersey and Bridgeport, Connecticut.

Gene Autry Purchases Weiss & Barry Pubbery

NEW YORK—Gene Autry, president of Golden West Melodies, 4-Star Sales and Western Music, all publishing firms, last week announced the purchase of Weiss & Barry Music. Acquisition will further expand the cowboy's star's interests in pop music.

Paul Barry will be the general manager in charge in New York; Troy Martin in Nashville; Joe E. Johnson will be vice-president and general manager of the Hollywood office; Dave Burgess will be the professional manager of the Hollywood office. As a result of the Weiss & Barry acquisition, Autry copyrights will total 8,000.

Epic Names Berniker Associate Producer

NEW YORK—Michael Berniker has been named associate producer for Epic Records, according to an announcement by William Levy, director of A&R and merchandising for the label.

In his new position, Berniker will perform various assignments with Epic's popular and jazz artists, their repertoire and studio recordings.

Berniker joined Epic in 1960. Prior to his new appointment, he was active in establishing Epic's new jazz series catalog.

UA Pic Hits Lead To Theatre Selling

NEW YORK—The United Artists label's solid singles and LP successes with film main-title material has given the diskery an important sales medium in motion-picture theatres via special dealer-theatre tie-ins.

The label reported last week that in some areas dealers are supplying local theatres with singles and LP's of music from pics being played at the theatre, with the theatre operator setting up counter or table display and manning the selling with his own personnel. Theatre operator usually receives a percentage of the sale.

For UA, this type of selling has come about mainly as the result of two films, "Never On Sunday" and "Exodus," two UA releases whose main-titles are big UA singles (Fer-rante & Teicher's "Exodus" tops the Top 100 chart this week). UA also has the "Sunday" soundtrack and an LP of "Exodus" music (Victor has the soundtrack).

According to reports from UA field-men to the home office, sales in the lobbies of the theatres where the pictures are being played are reported as "brisk" with lines forming before and after each performance to purchase the albums, and in some cases the singles.

UA said one other merchandising factor has also developed from this type of selling. Most record outlets in the vicinity of the theatres screening the films are able to hype sales by special window displays tying in the films, and, in the case of "Exodus," with its big promotion and exploitation program, record shops within a given city have been able to benefit through the opening barrage of newspaper and radio advertising.

In each of those cities where new openings have taken place, disk sales in the theatres have been ranging from "good" to "heavy," according to exhibitor reports.

UA Re-Stocking Plan To Run Thru Jan.

NEW YORK—United Artists has set-up a special re-stocking sales program for its distributors to run through the end of this month. Under terms of the deal, distributors will receive one album free with each five of the same title they purchase. The plan will apply to the entire UA catalog, including its currently high-riding "Great Motion Picture Themes", "Exodus", "Ferrante and Teicher's World's Greatest Themes", and two strong sound tracks, "The Apartment" and "Never On Sunday."

"In order to allow the distributors to re-stock in depth," Andy Miele, national sales manager stated, "we are setting up a special deferred payment for this program whereby billing will be split one-half in February and the balance in March."

The re-stocking program does not apply to UA's Sound Series, Ultra Audio, which will remain in a one-a-six program through Jan. 31, the shut-off date for the UA plan.

"Due to the increasing demand for the UA and the Ultra Audio product, Art Talmadge, vice-president and general manager said, "we have held up new releases in order for our distributors to replenish their stock as advantageously as possible, and to allow them to select their own re-orders at will, without reservation, from our current catalog."

"The impetus from Dec., which was the biggest sales month in our history, is carrying over into Jan. and we wanted the distributor to get the full advantage of those albums which are continuing to climb sales-wise before we bring out our new releases which will be our most powerful to date," Talmadge said.

Form Firm For Indie LP Packaging

NEW YORK—Sid Maurer, head of Maurer Studios, an album packaging and merchandising consultant agency here, has announced the formation of Persuasive Packing Corp. for the servicing of indie LP lines.

Maurer said that he had felt the need for an "all-encompassing service for the smaller independent labels to provide them with a one-stop type packaging operation" to get finished LP jackets delivered directly to the label's pressing plant through one operation.

Maurer Studios' accounts include RCA Victor, Columbia, Everest, Decca, Coral.

Miller's Gang

NEW YORK—Margaret, Mike and Andrea Miller, children of Columbia's Mitch Miller, invite Garry Moore to sing along with them after they appeared on Moore's "I've Got A Secret", CBS TV'er. The youngsters, along with other talented offspring of well-known people, tried to stump the panel.

Platter Spinner Patter

ALL ABOUT DISK JOCKEYS

Don't know what this Larry Gar has? but the WLBG-Laurens, S.C. disk jockey sure gets around enough to prove there's some unidentifiable magnetism about him that attracts like crazy. Picked up a copy of Song Hits Magazine, the February issue, and found ourselves staring at a full page, photo-filled feature story on the guy. And, to top this off, we were just informed that jazz composer Fred Kaz has written a jazz instrumental titled "Gar." Could be another "Robbins Nest" maybe. . . . Michael Ruppe, Jr., promo director for WIL-St. Louis, kept the wires hot last week with hourly telegrams informing us of the progress of the WIL Radio Marathon. The marathon broadcast competition between disk jockies Ron Lundy and Robin Scott kicked off at 4 PM New Year's Eve (Sat.) to raise money for the St. Louis Boys Club. The two ran neck and neck through Sunday and Monday until Tuesday morning when doctors advised Lundy to give up the ghost due to traumatic laryngitis. Scott went on to win, establishing a new St. Louis marathon record of 67 hours, 8 minutes. More important than that is the fact that the project raised fifteen thousand dollars for the Boys Club building fund. As of this writing pledges were still pouring in to the station. Inducement to contribute was made by the station offering a $100 prize to the contributor who was able to estimate most correctly the winner and time of the contest at its end. . . . Al Anthony, program director of KAFY-Bakersfield, Calif., launched a city clean-up campaign by asking listeners to bring him matchbooks and receive a 45 rpm disk for every 20 matchbooks turned in. At last count, Anthony was submerged in a pile of 41,000 matchbooks. This after only seven days of campaign. . . . Another recent promo success in the public service ledger was WSIX-Nashville's "Pencil Sweepstakes." Conducted by jockies Buzz Benson and Bob Bell, listeners were invited to vote for their favorite of the two by sending in an old pencil entitling them to one vote. In turn, the station donated a new pencil for each old one received to the school of the listener's choice. By the end of the sweepstakes the station was committed to donate the huge sum of 112,930 pencils to local schools. Now at least the kids can learn to write.

Religious radio broadcasting celebrated its 40th birthday Jan. 2. As with so many radio "firsts," this form of programming began with pioneer station KDKA-Pittsburgh. The station, which inaugurated regular broadcasting on Nov. 2, 1920 with the Harding-Cox election, was looking around at that time for material that would be appropriate for regular Sunday evening programming. One of the station engineers was a church choir member and suggested to his rector the possibilities of carrying the Calvary Episcopal Services over the airwaves. The rector, Dr. E. J. van Etten, now deceased, was greatly interested in the bold new experiment and consented to the placing of microphones in the church to pick up the Jan. 2 services. The program thus also became the first remote broadcast. And after forty years, the association between KDKA and religion is kept very much alive with the airing of four Sunday evening hours devoted to religion. . . . Cleveland's KYW radio personalities, Big Wilson, Ronnie Barrett, Swingin' Sweeney and Tom Griffiths, are all suffering from cases of housemaid's knees. They picked up this dread disease by aiding a local woman in cleaning her house. The gal was the winner in the station's "Why I'd like the KYW disk jockies to clean My House" contest. Luckily, the lady also collected a prize of $100 to hire competent help to undo the damage done by the deejays. . . . As sponsors of the Second Annual Broadcasting Seminar in Providence, WICE played host to over 375 students interested in the fields of radio and television. The event, an annual public service project, was originated by WICE program director Sherm Strickhouser. . . . KALL-Salt Lake City capitalized on and spurred the city's Christmas spirit with a contest that gave a mink stole, $100 cash and a hi-fi console to the most unusual and gayly decorated house. Of course, the decorations had to include the station call letters to be eligible for the competition. Cute trick for free outdoor advertising.

VITAL STATISTICS:

Dave Lord, the lad who did such a tremendous job for the national Hi-Fi Clubs out of its New York headquarters, has relocated himself in the sunny south. Dave's now spinning disks for WIRK-West Palm Beach, Fla., and, incidentally, is enjoying the warm weather. . . . John Beaty is also down in West Palm Beach, but at WEAT. John, formerly of WNOG-Naples, Fla., is handling the wake-up stanza plus some TV work in the area. . . . Al Dunaway has been named program director of WINZ-Miami. (All this news from the southland indicates that they're the only ones without numb fingers from the cold that can still write.)

Ferrante & Teicher

Arthur Ferrante and Louis Teicher have been playing piano together since they were six years old, when they first met as students at the Julliard School of Music. Ferrante, born in New York City, the son of a violinist, was encouraged early to make music a career. Tiecher was born in Wilkes Barre, Pa., and moved with his family to New York when he was five years old, to further his musical talents.

During the school days, they studied with the same teachers and later were graduated as piano majors under Carl Friedberg. After a brief period of concertizing, they returned to Julliard as faculty members, teaching theory and composition. During the next few years they combined teaching with a limited schedule of concerts, but their increasing popularity on the concert stage forced them to give up teaching in 1947 to devote full time to concert work.

In recent years they have appeared on every major network radio and television show, and for two years were the resident piano team on ABC's "Piano Playhouse." After recording extensively for several companies they went to United Artists where they scored immediately with "Theme From The Apartment." Their latest hit, "Exodus," which moved into the #1 slot this week, is UA's first million selling record.

The Ramrods

The instrumental group known as the Ramrods first took form in 1956 as a sort of family affair. Brother and sister Richard and Claire Lane teamed up with cousin Eugene Mooro and Vincent B. Lee to form the group. They played around their local Connecticut at record hops and in club dates until a record they had made of an old song was noticed by Amy Records.

The recording, "Ghost Riders In The Sky," has now begun its ascent up the hit list, jumping into the #62 slot on this week's Top 100.

Instrumentation of the group is Richard Lane—tenor sax, Claire Lane—drums, Eugene Mooro—guitar and Vincent B. Lee—guitar. Claire also writes all the arrangements.

Liberty Opens LP Year With Extensive Program

NEW YORK—Liberty Records' LP department moves into '61 this week with a "Look To Liberty For '61" theme which opens with eight new LP's and Jan. 9-Feb. 13 dealer merchandising plan and promotion. As outlined by national sales manager Don Bohanan, the dealer program offers: 10% discount on the entire dealer's order, including the new releases, provided the dealer purchases seven of the eight new releases; payments to be made over a three-month period; 100% exchange privilege.

Promotion of the new Liberty LP's include a series of national distrib meets. In the east it will be headed by Bohanan, aided by Bud Dain; in the southwest, Kenneth Revercomb; in the midwest, Joe Sadd; in the south, Bob Skaff; on the west coast, Don Blocker. Bohanan said that much emphasis will be placed on local and regional radio and television exposure, including the use of FM as a means of pre-selling our product.

On the merchandising side, items include browser headers, and display kits plus "story line" notes for deejays to use as suggested script copy during airplay.

The LP's, which Bohanan described as the "finest in the company's history," include: "Exotic Percussion"—Martin Denny; "Send For Me"—Julie London (center band around the LP offers the buyer an illustrated, 16-page life story of Miss London by sending in a coupon on the band); "The Original Hits, Vol. 2"; "Johnny Burnette"; "Bobby Vee"; "A Living Legend"—Bob Wills & Tommy Duncan; "Rides, Rapes & Rescues"—silent movie music by Hangnails Hennessey & Wingy Brubeck; "The Ventures" (on the label's Dolton subsid).

Engemann Upped In Capitol A&R; Wyatt Named Assoc. Producer

HOLLYWOOD—Karl Engemann, formerly an associate A&R producer for Capitol Records, has been named administrative assistant to Francis Scott, album director for the A&R division of the label.

Announcement of Engemann's appointment was made last week by Scott, who stated that Engemann will move immediately into the newly-created post from his current duties as an associate producer under executive A&R producer, Ken Nelson.

It was also announced that Paul Wyatt, formerly Capitol's editing supervisor, would replace Engemann as associate producer under Nelson. Engemann, who joined Capitol last March, will take on broader A&R responsibilities under Scott. Among various duties, Engemann will serve as album-planning committee secretary.

Before joining Capitol, Engemann was an A&R producer for Warner Brothers Records, where he handled most of the film and television personalities who recorded for that label. Among his artists were Connie Stevens, Edd ("Kookie") Byrnes, and Clint Walker.

Wyatt, who joined Capitol last January, has a broad background in both singing and songwriting around Nashville.

Sonny Lester Forms Gold Eagle Label

NEW YORK—Sonny Lester, former A&R man for the Coral, Dot and Top Rank labels, and currently head of Bald Eagle Products, a commercial jingles outfit, has announced the formation of Gold Eagle Records.

For 1961, Gold Eagle plans to release twenty-four singles, scheduling two a month, and six albums. The first singles release, set for Jan. 15, is a novelty tagged "Whadda Ya, Some Kinda Nut" (Parts 1&2) by Sonny & The Eagles. Second singles release is set for Feb. 1.

Bald Eagle Productions has concluded arrangements to have all its products distributed nationally by Jay-Gee Records.

Ogden Nash Cuts Capitol Album

HOLLYWOOD—Poet-social observer Ogden Nash has recorded his first album for Capitol Records after signing an exclusive contract with the label, it was announced last week by Alan Livingston, Capitol's Vice-President for Creative Services.

The album, "Ogden Nash Reads Ogden Nash," was recorded in New York recently under the supervision of executive A&R producer Andy Wiswell. Nash reads humorous selections from his anthology of poems, "Verses from 1929 On."

According to Wiswell, arranger-conductor Glenn Osser will provide an off-beat musical setting for the Nash readings, and the album will be released later this year.

Ogden Nash's highly inventive and American rhymes have become a national institution since his first collection, "Hard Lines," put a smile on the face of the Depression in 1931. The flood of Nash verse in both book and magazines has continued doing unorthodox things to and with the English language for an entire generation. Nash's recording activities are added to a heavy schedule of lecture appearances and magazine contributions.

He has of late been involved in a series of guest appearances on all the major television programs.

In addition to the new single record policy, Columbia has expanded its "Bonus to Sell" policy on package product. Effective Jan. 1, the category on series restriction has been lifted in favor of dollar exchange privilege, limited only to stereo, monaural for monaural.

Lewis, who has been in the record business for thirty years, is a graduate of Rugby & Trinity College in Cambridge, England. He headed U.S. Decca during the heyday of Bing Crosby. With English Decca, he introduced London's "frrr" hifi recording. He also formed the subsidiary companies, The Decca Navigator Co. Ltd., and Decca Radio Ltd., both of which have U.S. representation.

Independent Television has announced the names of the artists lined up to appear in The British Song Contest to be televised for the first time in 1961 with the co-operation of The Music Publishers' Association. The star-studded list includes Matt Monro, Tony Brent, Mike Preston, Andy Cole, June Marlow, The Barry Sisters, Ronnie Carroll, Lorie Mann, The Avons, The Mudlarks, The Raindrops, The Dallas Boys, Rosemary Squires, Frank Ifield, Jill Day, Johnny Angel, Don Rennie, Johnny Wade and The Michael Sammes Singers. Musical Director is Peter Knight.

The Contest is scheduled for the third week in February and has already attracted hundreds of entries from which the MPA will select 60 for short-listing by The Independent Television Selection Committee on January 11th. The committee is made up of representatives from each Independent Television programme company; members of the working committee of The Song Contest and songwriter Paddy Roberts, chairman of The British Songwriters Guild. Huw Thomas, Independent Television newscaster will introduce the songs in a series of heats to be televised on February 13, 14, 15 and 16. Culminating in the finals from The Royal Festival Hall on Friday, February 17. The winners of the first three prizes—£1,000, £500 and £250—will be determined by a panel of 16 members of the public in each of the nine Independent Television areas up and down the country and the votes will be relayed to a central scoring board before the London TV cameras.

A month later on March 25 The Eurovision Song Contest takes place in Cannes, South of France and televised by 13 European countries simultaneously. As in previous years BBC TV will enter a new and unpublished British song to be determined by the votes of a nation wide jury televised in this country on February 15. The songs are being submitted by three major record companies: EMI, Decca and Philips. No further details have yet been announced by the BBC.

The recording strike threatened for January 15 may now be averted. It is understood that the disagreements between The British Phonographic Industry representing the manufacturers and The Mechanical Rights Society representing the publishers, concerning copyright royalties which have persisted since February, 1960, have now been amicably settled. Representatives of both parties are meeting in an effort to iron out the few remaining differences. Negotiations have been accelerated following an ultimatum issued last month by the BPI on behalf of its members which include EMI, Decca, Philips, Pye, Qualiton, Deutsche Grammophon (Great Britain) Ltd., Oriole, Topic, Esquire, Delyse, Argo, Melodisc, Gala, Vox, Allied Records, Record Society Ltd. and World Record Club. BPI indicated that unless the MRS agreed to their terms by January 15 its members would cease to issue recordings of copyright works under their control from that date.

The terms demanded were as follows:

- Royalties shall be paid for all records manufactured and sold retail in the United Kingdom at the rate established at the time of sale under the Copyright Act, 1956 and, for records manufactured and exported at the rate provided in the 1956 standard contract between the record companies and BIEM for the country of export, or at the rate fixed by any contract replacing same.
- The 6½ per cent container allowance for LP records shall continue in force.
- The Medley Agreement as at present operating shall continue in force until such time as modifications may be agreed.
- The inquiries and statutory notices sent under the Act and Regulations shall be acknowledged without the addition of special conditions (other than release dates) and the acknowledgment shall include permission to make records of the work or a similar adaptation in all cases where such permission has been given to a third party in the U.K.
- The facsimile stamp and accounting systems as at present operated shall continue without prejudice to the right of the Publishers to require special safeguards in appropriate circumstances.

The BPI emphasized "that these conditions are those which at present govern the relationship between the individual record companies and the publishers. The record industry is claiming neither a change in the basis of royalty nor more favourable conditions than those which have operated to mutual advantage in the past."

Congratulations to E. R. Lewis, chairman of The Decca Record Company, recently created a Knight Bachelor in the New Year's Honours List. Sir Edward Robert Lewis, currently in New York, is expected back in London next week. His knighthood brings further honor and prestige to the record industry.

Mark Wynter, whose first Decca recording "Image Of A Girl" made the charts in 1960, looks all set for the 'big time'. Granada TV selected him for its New Year program "Compass" as the most promising pop star of 1961. Manager Roy Mackender says he is negotiating a film contract which will offer Mark a starring role in his first picture.

The latest artists to win silver disks for sales exceeding 250,000 are Anthony Newley with "Strawberry Fair" (Decca) and Nina & Frederik with "Little Donkey" (Columbia).

B.B.C. TV just gave British viewers a host of top American stars when they presented the third Bing Crosby Show. Guests included Frank Sinatra, Peggy Lee, Louis Armstrong, George Shearing and Joe Bushkin and Axel Stordahl's orchestra.

Danish stars Nina & Frederik have their own show on BBC TV on January 13. Guests include harmonica player Larry Adler featuring his own composition "Camera Three" and Beethoven's "Minuet in G." Sally Ann Howes, recently returned from Broadway, stars in BBC TV "Showtime" this week. Also on the bill German star Heidi Bruhl together with Harry Worth.

The Andrews Sisters, currently appearing in cabaret at "The Talk Of The Town," recently topped the bill for Val Parnell's "Sunday Night At The London Palladium" on ABC TV. The sisters last appeared at the famous London Palladium way back in 1951.

The annual Hit Parade Ball organized by The Trade Music Guild in aid of the trade personnel of the publishing houses will be held on Friday, February 10 at The Empire Rooms, London. Dancing will be to Les Brown and his Orchestra and a cabaret will be supplied by Pye recording group The Flee Rekkers.

Following a report that Anne Shelton has waxed "Sailor" for Philips comes news of two more English waxings—Petula Clark with the Peter Knight Orchestra and Chorus on Pye and The Andrews Sisters with the Orchestra of Bernard Ebbinghouse on Decca. Polydor are releasing the original version by Lolita currently in The Cash Box Top 100. Release date January 15. Publisher is Leeds Music.

Arrangements for the licensing of imports from The Peoples Republic of China from January 1, 1961 to December 31, 1961 have been announced by the Board of Trade. The quota for imports of musical instruments (subject to type) has been fixed at £100,000.

Polydor has released a new single, "The Coffee Grinder" by Hugo Blanco, an attractive instrumental featuring a South American harp. Two 12" LP's just out on the same label are "Caterina Cherie" by Caterina Valente and "Mediterranean Magic" by Los Espanoles. In February Polydor issues its first British Jazz LP, "High Spirits Blended" by Simms Wheeler Vintage Jazz Band."

With the release this month of a stereo single Pye Records add another 'first' to its credit. Jack Bradley, the company's newly appointed Press Officer told The Cash Box that the release specially recorded primarily for stereo is largely experimental but, if successful, further stereo singles will be issued. The titles "Coral Reef" and "Tropical Blue" have been composed and recorded by Ed White with a 50 piece orchestra. There is also a monaural version. Other releases by Pye include the fourth disk by popular Scottish folk singer Josh Macrae. "Messing About On The River." Joe Brown waxes his first disk for Pye "Shine" backed with "The Switch." In the LP field, the label comes up with "Sporting Highlights of 1960," a collection of the greatest sporting events of the year by BBC commentators and the original soundtrack recording "Pepe" featuring Shirley Jones, Bobby Darin, Sammy Davis Jr., Maurice Chevalier, Judy Garland and Bing Crosby.

Highlights from EMI first releases for 1961 include two hits from The Cash Box Top 100, Connie Francis with "Many Tears Ago" on MGM and on the same label Joni James has a single "My Last Date" and a new LP, "Joni Sings Sweet." Another MGM long player is Vera Lynn's first for the label, "Yours" with The Williams Singers and Geoff Love and his Orchestra. In addition to the title song, Vera brings her style to bear on such numbers as "You'll Never Know," "Fools Rush In," "Try A Little Tenderness," "When I Grow Too Old To Dream" and "I'll Be Seeing You." Dinah Washington's "We Have Love" is issued on the Mercury label as is "That's All I Want To Know" by Patti Page. Peter Sellers and Sophia Loren follow their sensational "Goodness Gracious Me"—still high in The Cash Box British charts—with "Bangers and Mash." Sophia has the flipside to herself with "Zoo be Zoo be Zoo." New HMV singles include the latest disk by Lloyd Price and his Orchestra "(You Better) Know What You're Doin'" and a new disk artist Gerry Temple "No More Tomorrows." On Columbia, Russ Conway plays his piano version of "Pepe" and on the same label comes a cover version of the American hit, "You're Sixteen," by Bill Forbes. Heading the Capitol LP releases is Frank Sinatra's "Nice 'n' Easy" with the Nelson Riddle Orchestra and a new Nat King Cole "Wild Is Love." Jackie Gleason comes along with "Music Martinis and Memories."

Decca starts the New Year by releasing Johnny Burnette's American hit, "You're Sixteen" on the London label. Johnny is expected to tour the country later in the year with Roy Orbison. Also on London comes America's No. 1 version of "Pepe" by Duane Eddy. Pianist Ronnie Aldrich produces an entirely different sound with his waxing of the number on Decca. Following Ronnie's success in America via a London LP made by Decca expressly for the U.S. market, the company plans a "Stereo Spectacular" piano album for early release both here and in the States. Britain's Billy Fury has a new single out on Decca, "A Thousand Stars." Billy tops the bill in the new Larry Parnes road show scheduled for a nation wide tour starting 16th February.

AUSTRALIA

The second All-American Rock Spectacular to be staged by the Lee Gordon office is scheduled for later this month. The show will star Bobby Rydell, Brenda Lee, Duane Eddy, Chubby Checker and Oliver Cool. It will be the second Australian visit for both Rydell and Eddy, and the first visit for the other three stars. The show will play the following cities; Adelaide, January 23; Melbourne, January 24 & 25; Brisbane, January 26; Sydney, January 27 & 28.

Each artist on the bill has a current hit disk doing well. Rydell is making noise with his revival of "Sway"; Brenda Lee, who should be a real knockout with our audiences, has "I Want To Be Wanted" and "Rockin' Around The Xmas Tree," both doing well; Eddy, always a popular attraction in this country, is well up on hit parades with "Peter Gunn"; Checker is getting off-the-ground with "The Hucklebuck"; and Oliver Cool is a big hit with "Oliver Cool."

Overall, this is one of the hottest packages to visit this country, and the tour should turn out to be a great success. All details of the show are being handled by Alan Heffernan, who at the request of Lee Gordon, is handling all Lee's affairs while Lee is visiting Honolulu and the west coast of the United States. It is believed that Gordon's present American visit could culminate in the signing of some of the biggest American names to tour Australia later this year.

The APRA Bulletin for December, 1960 reports that "Eula Parker has received the largest single payment APRA has ever made to a composer for TV and radio performances of her song "The Village Of St. Bernadette" in America during 1959.

Most record companies and music publishers are back in business again at the conclusion of the annual Xmas/Summer vacation. First record releases for 1961 are now out and there is an exciting air of confidence throughout the entire trade that 1961 will again see the record and music industry making great headway. There is plenty of room for expansion, and the time is right for an all-out drive by the trade to further popularize recorded music as a major means of good family entertainment. No other entertainment form offers such a tremendous choice of material by the world's most talented artists, and there is a complete freedom of choice and self selection that cannot be offered by other forms of entertainment. The record industry is unique in the world today and every advantage should be taken of this fact.

It's on again! Strong rumors are again circulating to the effect that Elvis will visit Australia soon for a tour. These stories have been doing the rounds for a number of years now but rarely have they been so strong and free as right now. I know a few people who would like to have shares in the show that will star Elvis if and when he decides to come here. What's the score Colonel?

RCA records has released its Roger Miller single of "You Don't Want My Love." This could become a very big record in this area. Both the Miller and the Andy Williams' versions are catching plenty of air-play.

Darrell Miley, former program director of the Victorian division of the Australian Broadcasting Commission, has been appointed to the new post of Federal Director of Entertainment Programs of the ABC. Darrell's new office will be in Sydney, national headquarters of the Commission, which is the Government operated network.

An unusual luncheon party was held in Brisbane recently when leading disk jockeys entertained record company representatives. Among the hosts were Bill Gates, Bill O'Brien, Johnny James and Geoff Atkinson; the guests included Ron Caves (EMI), Colin Hopgood (ARC), John Ungerer (Festival), Dave McKenna (Mercury) and Ron Jarrett (RCA). A similar function took place in Melbourne when radio station 3DB entertained record company executives at lunch.

Jonathan Daly, of the popular American team of Delo & Daly, is now on his way back to Australia to take up a position as a producer/director with GTV-9 in Melbourne. Delo & Daly were by far the most popular of all imported acts that Channel Nine has brought to this country.

The Oscar Petersen Trio will return to Australia within the next few weeks to play a short return season at "The Embers." They will also give a concert and are set to star in some television spectaculars.

Great joy in the W & G camp over the top-notch reviews the diskery's album, "Hymns Of The Catholic Church," received from American trade papers. The album was released recently by ABC-Paramount. It is also set for release in England by Decca Records.

FRANCE

Last week marked the return of Edith Piaf to the music hall stage in Paris, with a television appearance and an "avant-première" performance at Versailles' Cyrano Theatre to whip her show into shape. All our best wishes to Edith! How we regret that this grand artist could not take time off for a complete rest after the grave illness from which she has just recovered. As Edith puts it, she must start from scratch, having sold her estate at Condesur-Vaigres in order to live during the past few months. And "bravo" for one of the few friends who stood by her during the darkest days, her agent, Barrié. Let's hope that Edith's tremendous talent and her great experience will provide the strength necessary to carry on and to give us new hits like her latest "Non, Je Ne Regrette Rien."

Songwriter Rivegauche made his début on the same program with Piaf. Paola makes her return also—to the Bobino Music Hall. Since her success with "Si T' As Eté à Tahiti" she has been marking time and perhaps this is the signal for a new take-off such as singer John William has found with "Le Bleu De L'été" ("Green Leaves of Summer") on the same Bobino program.

Colin of Robbins Music tells us that Danièle Darrieux (Pathe) will record "Laura." Danièle, on the look-out for a hit, is trying the "classics."

Jacques Plante reports that the title of the French adaptation of "That's How Much" is "Multiplie par un million." After Gillian Hills (Barclay), Linel will wax the tune for Ricordi.

Madame Breton has postponed her trip to the U.S. and will not make the crossing until the end of March. Meanwhile, she is taking time off for winter sports at Gstadt, accompanied by EMI A&R man Michel Glotz and singer Gilbert Becaud. For the latter, after "Tête De Bois" let's hope there will be no "Jambe De Bois." Madame Breton leaves everything in order for the next recording session of J. J. Debout who will cut "Je Ne Te Dis Pas," by Valade, and two songs by Henri Salvador and the late Boris Vian whose titles she refuses to divulge.

Claude Goaty (Vogue) will record "Faisons Un Rêve" by Lavigny and "Les Soldats" by Trenet, both from the Breton files. Madame Breton has shown her belief in the talent of R. Asso by buying the rights to "Ma Chanson Lon-Lon-Lon-Laine" which Colette Renard (Vogue) will wax at her next session.

Micheline Rimalde (Ricordi) has included "La Sirène Des Bateaux" by Dimay in the list of her next record releases.

Chappell publishers is primed for a hit with "Annette, Brigitte & Cie.", which is keeping the radio waves humming! John William has added "Summertime," and the new tune, "Adieu Mamma" by Norl Roux, to his growing repertoire.

Big promotion campaign by Roquière's underway on the music from "Exodus." Raymond Lefevre and Emil Stern have recorded it already for the Barclay label. Franck Pourcel (Pathé) has recorded Eddy Marnay's arrangement which will probably keep the original title.

Radio Luxembourg is plugging Miguel Carmela's records and especially Guy Bertret's adaptation of "Castillana."

A. Ferrerri (Vogue publications) continues to bet on the writing team, Alstone & Tabet, and it's Petula Clarke who will wax their song, "Tapis Volant." The popular singer will also record, but this time in her native language, the English version of the German tune, "Sailor."

Caught a glimpse of Vogue's President, Leon Cabat, not too tired from his fox-hunting, but teaming with new ideas. . . . His next releases—"Gonzo" by Booker and "Cry, Cry, Cry" by Bland. And since Johnny Halliday's "Killiwatch" seems off to a rousing start, he's organizing a rock 'n roll show for Johnny with the help of radio and television. The international touch will be supplied by English singer Ford and Italian rock 'n roller A. Celentabo.

Not much news from Pathé-Marconi unless it's the lightening climb of "Non Je Ne Regrette Rien," whose entire success is due to Piaf and to publisher Phil Boutet (Editions Eddie Barclay).

Separated from Bourvil, Pierette Bruno will record from the Chappell song roster, "Dent De Lait."

Back from his trip to the U.S., Phil Boutet has brought "Pépé" from Manhattan Music, which Dalida will wax in both French and German. Her next studio date will include "Ciao Ciao, Mon Amour," French version of "Angel of Love" adapted by G. Garvarentz. Phil also got from Manhattan the rights to "Sound Off." Barclay will release the Jamie Records interpretation by Titus Turner.

Charles Aznavour is being held over at the Alhambra and for anybody who knows Madame Bretteaux, this means his singing stint there is a real triumph. Eddie Barclay reports that his label sold 12,000 EP's of Aznavour's "Je Me Voyais Deja" during the first week of issue. Les Barclay are waxing for the export trade "Les Trois Clouches" and "La Vie En Rose." Jean Phillipe (Barclay) ought to find the hit he needs with "Makin' Whoopee."

Max Marino (Fontana) is readying for release "Pizza Party" and Claude Vega has his first record for the same firm on the shelves. Henri Salvador (Barclay) says his latest tune is "Vole, Vole, Mon Amour." Rene Lebas will do "Timango." Talented pianist Ingrid Haller plans a new Mozart release. In the King of Jazz series, "Wild Bill Davis at Birdland" will soon reach the market, as well as the latest recording by Carmela and her Latin-American songs (accompanied by Paco Ibanez).

Philips announces Juliette Greco's departure for a tour of Japan. Maya Casabianca's "Puerta Del Sol" is chalking up sales and Les Freres Jacques will appear on a 1-hour television show this week. The latest Philips "Realite's" release, "Sur Le Blue," is excellent.

Eddie Barclay has just signed an agreement with the German firm, Ariola, for French rights to the recordings of Jan & Kjeld ("The Banjo Boys"). Their next releases—"A Tisket, A Tasket" and "Sweet Sue."

GERMANY

Although our yearly report showed a decline in the singles market in Germany, the record industry has kept its chin up and reports that 1960 was not quite as bad as it was cracked up to be. Here's a general report on the outlook for '61 and a review of the past year as given by the record firms themselves. Amadeo, a small label, reports an increase in its distribution facilities and an increase in classical sales.

The Austrian-based Austroton label had its first big German hit in '60 with "Hilo March" which gave its singles a 30% boost over '59. Another new and small firm, Bella Musica, started production in '60 and is still in business. They had one medium hit, and sales in juke boxes were very good.

A new firm with a well known distributor came into being in '60. The distributing organization, Plotz and Co., in Bremen gave up its connection with Storyville-Sonet-Roulette, and took on the French label Vogue and the top English mark Pye. The new firm is called Deutsche Vogue Schallplatten GmbH. Although starting in late fall, the firm increased publicity and distribution greatly in preparation for '61 with an eye to greater sales on imported package merchandise.

Staying alphabetic, here's the first of the big labels. Electrola located in Cologne handles such labels as Capitol, Mercury, ABC-Paramount, etc. as well as a large and good German production.

Electrola reports a great increase in the sale of 12" LP's and a great increase in the sale of classical music. As reported, singles moved into the million, 1/2 million, 200,000 class or just didn't move at all. There was 12% more production in the first 9 months of '60 compared to '59, and classical music rose in sales some 36%.

Metronome, a Scandinavian based mark, with large offices in Hamburg, and a look to big sales in this bigger market increased business by 30% in '60. Although losing the Pye-Nixa mark, Metronome picked up Storyville-Sonet from Denmark, the new Adano mark with two top German producers at the helm turning out the production, and its top producer Charly Schmitz has turned out some fine products especially the Siv Malmkvist covers of Connie Francis, which have done top business. '61 will show an increase in the number of self owned distributors and salesmen, and a greater emphasis on the pop and jazz market in Germany. All in all, 1961 looks like the best year ever for Metronome.

Philips, which handles the Columbia label from America and the newly formed Broadway mark from Peter Schaeffers as well as a large production of its own, is certainly also considered one of the major labels. '60 looked just about like it did for Electrola. Increase in classical and all LP sales, and a comeback for pop sales to the extent of 43% mainly on the strength of top hits by Heidi Bruhl and Leo Leandros. Philips has had a thorough reorganization of their distribution organization and has added extra promotion help. '61 looks bright for Philips too!

Polydor which handles American Decca-Coral-Brunswick as well as Cadence MGM and a few smaller lines has the biggest German production of any firm and the biggest sales on pop material at present. Same report. Increased LP and EP sales, and big single hits headed by American toppers "Sailor-Lolita, "Wonderland By Night"-Bert Kaempfert and others. With a new distribution organization formed under the control of the record firm instead of its parent company, Siemens, '61 looks like a bigger and better year for that firm too.

Staying with the majors, Teldec handles the large group of foreign distributed London records, RCA Victor and its own production for Telefunken-Decca. Top stars such as Caterina Valente-Vico Torriani-Elvis Presley, etc. paved the way for a good '60, and stronger production with an emphasis on the pop market and stronger distribution should pave the way for a top '61.

The infant of the majors, Ariola, held its first national talent contest, has organized hundreds of clubs for youth, held contests and sales campaigns and in general, grown several feet in their try for the top of the heap here. Ariola handles the Top Rank lines, Palette, and a few smaller labels, encourages indie producers to produce masters for its label (it's the only firm that does so) and has a top production team of its own headed by hit maker Helmut Jantsch headquartered in Munich. Good outlook ahead for Ariola.

Two warehouse firms that do cover work on hits, Starlet and Tempo records, both report increased radio play on their products and therefore better sales.

Let's evaluate all this optimism and see what we have. In general, the new smaller firms were able to gain a stronger foothold in the market. The large firms still lead the way but the division of top hits was greater than in the last pair of years. With a strong close of sales in '60 and a stronger realization of competition for top selling products, '61 should show a great increase over its preceding year. There were more million sellers and more flops than ever before, and '61 shows no tendency for a change in that. Next week, back to the local news of Germany.

BENELUX

New Year's releases at L. C. Phonogram bring lots of top disks for Dutch record lovers. There is a brand new 12" production from the Teldec organization. Caterina Valente and Edmundo Ros are two hitmakers together on one longplayer! The South American repertoire of this LP consists of such tunes as "Frenesi," "Estrellita Del Sur," "Saudades Da Bahia," "Baiao," "Canto Karabali," etc. This twelve-incher is sure to be a winner. Decca has released a kind of an annual report on pops: "Top Hits 1960/1961." Stars like Caterina Valente, Vico Torriani, Billy Mo and the Club Honolulu are heard on 10 inch LP.

Christmas sales were quite satisfactory at Bovema-Gramophone house with Frank Sinatra, Connie Francis, Everly Brothers, Conny Froboess, Johnny Otis and Cliff Richard among the highest figures.

Lale Andersen's "Ein Schiff Wird Kommen" was one of Bovema's His Master's Voice—highlights during the last weeks of 1960. The Jules Dassin film, "Never On Sunday"—the title song of which has been released by Imperial's teenage star Lydia—still attracts big crowds.

In 1959 there was a big Dutch national hit called "Ik Sta Op Wacht" (I'm Standing Guard). Music publishers Basart now hope to have the 1961 equal of this song in "Wij Zwaaien Af" (Released From The Army). Joop de Kneft (Philips) and Co Hagendoorn (Polydor) rushed a release of the song and the first week showed sales in the thousands. Basart also has a hit on its hands with "Einen Ring Mit Zwei Blutroten Steinen," Caterina Valente's chartmaker. There is a Dutch version by Liana on the Fontana-label which is doing very well. Essex-Holland (Basart) has the Dutch rights to the English Sophia Loren/Peter Sellers success, "Goodness Gracious Me." There is a lot of promotion being done for the song, which appeals to the Dutch taste.

More news about Basart this week: This music publishing firm has taken over the Dutch exploitation of Keith Prowse-London in Holland. The Keith Prowse catalog is still one of the most powerful English properties, containing the Warsaw Concerto and many other valuable copyrights. In order to obtain an active promotion of its complete catalog, Mills Music, New York-London, has set up its own company in Holland. Basart will run the Mills Corp. in Holland.

The motion picture "The Apartment" is having an enormous success in Holland. The same goes for the soundtrack recording, which is in the January 1st release of L. C. Phonogram (London-label). There seems to be a Pat Boone boom again in the low countries. Pat's "Moonglow" LP is selling like hot cakes. Billy Vaughn is riding the charts again with his London 12 inch "Look For A Star."

Pick of the L. C. Phonogram releases this week: "Perfidia" by The Ventures (London), "Wenn Der Weisse Flieder Wieder Blüht" (in Dixieland-style) by the Danish jazzband Kardinalerné, "Ramona," sung in German by The Blue Diamonds; a Little Richard EP record; "Wenn Die Elisabeth" by Billy Mo (Decca); the Judy Garland LP, "A Star Is Born"; a series of 12" jazz recordings on the Philips label entitled "Giant Jazz Gallery"; and the Johnny Horton recording of "North To Alaska" (London).

Frank Visser, Bovema's MGM label manager, told The Cash Box that tremendous sales results have been reached with both LP's and singles of Connie Francis, Conway Twitty, Bing & Satchmo, Hank Williams, Robert Stolz, André Previn and the "Subterraneans"—soundtrack. The tremendous quality of Ray Ellis' LP, "The Big Voices, The Big Songs, The Big Sounds," is another lift for the rising MGM prestige in the Dutch record-market. In January 1961, the label starts its activities with the production of a series of jazz-EP's with tracks by Charlie Shavers, Earl Hines, Gerry Mulligan, Sarah Vaughan, Sonny Rollins and others.

Pathé-France, is concentrating on high level entertainment with chansons, musette, dance and folk music. This policy also reflects to the Dutch Pathé-production with releases of Toni Volare and the Ad v.d. Hoed Quartet. There's a strong extension of the repertoire and good technical quality.

The sales staff of L. C. Phonogram recently held its annual dinner at the famous Hotel Bouwes at Zandvoort by the Sea. On this informal meeting it was Coen Solleveld who said goodbye to all the reps and sales people. Theo v.d. Meer took the stand and said he would continue the sales boosting efforts of Solleveld.

A lot of approval and enthusiasm is aroused in Dutch dealer-circles by Bovema's newest presentation "Gramophone house-Flitsen," especially edited as a service and inside-information for Bovema's many clients everywhere in the country.

Will Tura, Belgian's number one teenage singer, is in the Belgian army but he is still making records. His very newest Palette-recording, "Zwart, Geel, Rood" (Black, Yellow, Red, the national tricolor) is the Flemish version of "Green And White" by Van Strickland. The latest recordings by popular Los Poco Locos, "Nena" and "Silba Juana," are issued now in France too. Palette recording artists The Cousins are conquering Belgium by storm with its hit version of "Kili Watch." Johnny Halliday and Bob Azzam also recorded the tune.

Bobbejaan Schoepen has a new best seller on the Decca label: "Grijze Haren" and "Ver Van Huis." Bobbejaan returned from Germany, where he made another triumphant tour.

SCANDINAVIA

SWEDEN

Karl Nirén of Karusell-Joker Records off for a short visit to Oslo. Early in January, Nirén plans to visit the U.S. on a combined biz and vacation trip.

The new song by Evert Taube, "Så Långe Skutan Kan Gå" (As Long As The Ship Will Sail) was recorded by Gunnar Thim for Artist and released within 20 hours after the first presentation of the song. Thim was singing with the orchestra led by Peter Nielsen. The same Nielsen is one of the soloists with The Travellers, an instrumental group which cut the TV-theme "Bonanza" for Artist. This recording has become a top bestseller here in very short time—but until now nobody has known anything about the artists. Most people believed it was an American recording obtained for Sweden by Artist, a label handled by Nordiska Musikförlaget, which also handles Everest in Sweden.

Since Elvis Presley's "It's Now Or Never" passed the 100,000 mark in Sweden shortly before Christmas last year, the RCA record became one of Sweden's top sellers during 1960. Sture Wahlberg of RCA told The Cash Box that this record might very well become Elvis' biggest best seller in Sweden, as the sale still continues almost "as big as before."

Lill-Babs' recording of the Swedish song "Klas-Göran" sold 112,000 copies, according to a recently published statistic. This Swedish song also was a top seller in Denmark, Norway and Finland last year. EMI of Scandinavia has taken over the distribution of the American label, Riverside at New Year.

Ehrling & Löfvenholm has published the Danish song "Det Er Kärlighed" in Sweden. The song was composed by Bjarne Hoyer with lyrics by Knud Pheiffer with Swedish lyric by Sven Paddock.

NORWAY

A just published hit parade of 1960 shows that "Marina" with Rocco Granata on Cupol was the top selling record in Norway in 1960. Second came "He'll Have To Go" with Jim Reeves and "Everybody's Somebody's Fool" with Connie Francis third. Among the artists, Elvis Presley topped the list with seven records on the carts during the year, with Rocco Granata with two records and Jim Reeves, also two, at second and third. Among the most sold records, the first domestic song on the list, "Voi Voi," appeared in the 25th spot.

Figures for the total record production in Italy during 1959 were disclosed recently, a full year after the end of the period. The above graph compares 1959 and 1958 production figures. The following chart indicates percentage production for each type of record. The figures were compiled by Mr. Frachetti, secretary of IFPI Italiano, a market survey firm, and have appeared in the Italian music magazine, Musica E Dischi.

ITALY

Harold Lipsius, well known lawyer in Philadelphia specializing in the field of music rights, visited the Italian record industry in Milan. Lipsius, who is working for Jamie-Guyden Records, headed by Harry Finfer, was in Milan after Christmas and was introduced to Mr. Gurtler of Gurtler-Saar. Mr. Casetta of Bluebell, Mr. Giannini of C.G.D. and Mr. Matalon, manager of Mina, by The Cash Box Italian rep. They discussed and studied the possibilities of getting some matrix to release in the States. Of course, Lipsius did not miss paying a visit to Mr. Tosi of English Decca, which represents Finfer's lines in Italy. Lipsius came to Milan at the end of his long European trip. He will stop in Paris and then fly back to Philadelphia.

Tony Dallara, recording for Gurtler, will sing the new tune, "Un Uomo Vivo" (An Alive Man), penned by Gino Paoli, author of the number one song on the chart, "Il Cielo In Una Stanza," at San Remo. Mina will possibly sing "Le Mille Bolle Blue" (One Thousand Blue Bubbles) by Carlo Alberto Rossi. Both are strong numbers. Another song to remember, as the public will surely like it, is "Patatina," by Gianni Meccia.

After successfully releasing Gianni Meccia and Nico Fidenco, RCA Italiana is trying to launch Maria Monti on our record market. The latest of a series of her recordings on RCA Camden presents "La Mosca" (The Fly), lyrics by herself and music by Gino Paoli.

Discoteca, a new monthly record magazine, has come out in Rome, directed by William Weaver. It is devoted mainly to classical and opera repertoire. Weaver was in Rome during the war with the American Army and found the city so nice that in 1947 decided to settle there. He is a journalist specializing in classical music. Weaver has asked the cooperation of Mr. De Micheli to publish The Cash Box charts in Discoteca.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

"FOOLIN' AROUND (2:37) [Central Songs BMI—Owens, Howard]

"HIGH AS THE MOUNTAINS (2:21) [Blue Book BMI—Owens]

BUCK OWENS (Capitol 4496)

Buck Owens' newest hit bid is the brightly styled "Foolin' Around." Tune's a jauntily paced affair that becomes irresistible after just a couple of hearings. Bears the stamp of a #1 smash. "High As The Mountains" on the lower end is also a high-stepping country love affair.

"ANOTHER LONELY NIGHT" [Fowler BMI—Belew, Blake, Stevenson]

"I CAN'T LOSE ANYTHING" (2:48)

[Fowler BMI—Blake, Belew, Stevenson]

CARL BELEW (Decca 31200)

Look for Carl's "Another Lonely Night" to gain a quick place on the hit lists. It's a fast moving, toe-tapping rhythmic stanza that the songster sells with strong emotions. Also of hit potential is the very slow pretty melodic ballad tagged "I Can't Lose Anything." Has the makings of a twin-hit disk.

"I'D KNOW YOU ANYWHERE" (1:52) [Tenn-Tex BMI—Tubb]

"ONE EYED RED" (2:30) [Starday BMI—Tubb]

JUSTIN TUBB (Starday 533)

The younger Tubb's initial outing for Starday shows the lad means business in starting off the new affiliation on the right foot. He gives "I'd Know You Anywhere" a solid sendoff with a striking reading of the upbeat sentimental. Give it room to grow. Cute novelty, "One Eyed Red," should find many deejay admirers.

THE WILLIS BROTHERS
(Starday 532)

(B+) "Y'ALL COME" [Starday BMI—Duff] The Willis Boys revive the old Arlie Duff hit in genuine mountain fashion. A rousing, hand-clapping delight of a disk. Can get lots of play.

(B+) "LITTLE FOOTPRINTS IN THE SNOW" [Starday BMI—York] Now the brothers give out with a bouncy romantic session that's timely for the Winter season. Two good hillbilly offerings.

CARL STORY (Starday 531)

(B) "GET RELIGION" [Starday BMI—Story, York] The label's leading gospel artist works his Rambling Mountaineers into a rafter-raising frenzy for this quick-beat outing, while he remains calm in the recital passages. Strong release.

(B) "JERUSALEM MOAN" [Starday BMI—Story, York] A jet journey through an inspirational gospel song. Thorough professional work by all concerned.

NORM OWENS (Toppa 1032)

(B) "LOVE'S WHAT MAKES THE WORLD GO ROUND" (2:06) [Mixer BMI—Owens] Songster displays an infectious slice of love in bright-beat terms. Solidly swinging combo assistance.

(B) "LATELY" (2:25) [Mixer BMI—Owens, Halford] A traditional ballad is warmly sung by the artist. Both sides rate attention as potential.

BREWSTER BROS. (Janet 221)

(C+) "BECAUSE OF YOU" (1:56) [Janet BMI—Brewster, Brewster] Brother team offers an OK reading of a conventional country ballad. Tune's not the same as the pop standard.

(C) "KATIE DEAR" (2:36) [Janet BMI—Brewster, Brewster] Again it's a traditional country stand for the boys.

PETE PIKE (Rebel 229)

(B) "ON TOP OF THE HILL" (2:05) [Zap BMI—Burke, Reichelt, Loveless] Soft-spoken delivery of a beat ballad. Pike achieves a properly haunting flavor to this morbid song that's further helped by a chanting femme chorus.

(C+) "I CAN SEE AN ANGEL" (2:16) [4 Star BMI—Adelman] Completely different sound by the singer. Now he resorts to a strong nasal twang for the love words on this half.

VIC BANKS (Liberty Bell 9031)

(C) "TOO LATE FOR TEARS" (2:10) Medium paced weeper is chanted with feeling by Banks.

(C) "RENFRO VALLEY" (2:23) Singer tells about his birthplace with sentimentality.

Round Up

Margie Bowes has joined the Jim Denny Artist Bureau. The gal, a favorite "Grand Ole Opry" thrush for the past few years joins many of her "Opry" comrades in the Denny stable. Denny and Lucky Moeller, heads of the firm who inked Margie to her pact, disclosed that they'll have an announcement regarding a new recording contract for Margie within a few days. Right now, Margie is in Canada with King Gammon making TV films and is skedded to return to the states for a three week engagement in Las Vegas on Feb. 14.

RUSTY & DOUG

... Denny and Moeller also announced that they have concluded arrangements with Earl McDaniel to handle Johnny Burnette's personal appearances in the southeast. Burnette is slated to leave the country shortly with Brenda Lee and others for a six week tour of England and the continent. ... Starday's out with another Cowboy Copas EP. The four tune set features Cope with his famous string Martin Flat Top Guitar pickin' style, the same wonderful music that made "Alabam" such a tremendous smash. Don Pierce, Starday prexy, notes that he's already gone over 25,000 on Cope's new coupling, "Settin' Flat On Ready" and "Midnight In Heaven." Both sides are coming in strong and looks like the old-timer has a big two-sided whopper on his hands. Couldn't wish him better success. ... The James O'Gwynn fan club sent out a pint-sized journal to mark the holiday season. As usual, prexy Shirley did a terrific job and brought us up to date on the latest O'Gwynn doings. ... Here's a cute little item that ought to get a chuckle. We get regular letters that are typed on Liberty Records stationery with a Los Angeles address, and are mailed in envelopes from the Webb Pierce Fan Club with a Nashville address. Oddly enough, the mail comes from Slick Norris in Highlands, Texas. What a way to beat the cost of stationery! Though, even with this odd makeup of a letter, Slick Norris manages to do a bang-up job in his mailings. The guy's latest poop sheet bears plaudits for Buck Owens' "Foolin' Around," Rose Maddox's "Kissing My Pillow" and Rusty & Doug's "Louisiana Man." Whatever makes Slick hype other peoples records, we've never known him to be wrong. So there's your cue.

The CMA Board of Directors has set its next meeting for Jan. 27 and 28 in New York. (If they'd be smart they'd keep it down south and away from the miserable cold weather.) Anyway, the CMA's Jo Walker says the meeting will be a very important one at which many plans will be formalized for the association and its members for the year ahead. And considering the CMA's scope of membership, it will be a vital meeting for all of country music. Jo urges members to write their directors if they have any ideas or suggestions that can be discussed at the meeting. ... Carlton Haney's "New Dominion Barn Dance," a Saturday night feature at the WRVA Theatre in downtown Richmond, Va., for the past three years went local television New Year's Eve on WRVA-TV. ... Smoky Montgomery of WKJG-Ft. Wayne, Ind. is opening a record shop in that city with an eye to pushing country music. Chalk up another for our side. ... Leonard Loyd (The Country Flower) has moved from to radio station KMET-Paradise, Calif. and can sure use a supply of good country records. His airtime on KMET plus some time on Channel 13 television in Sacramento gives Leonard a total of 18 hours a week. That's plenty of time to spin country records. ... According to Hubert Long, the initial reaction to Roy Drusky's "I'd Rather Loan You Out" is by far the greatest of all previous Drusky records. If so, looks like Roy is in for another #1 item. Those needing copies can obtain them through Hubert in Nashville. ... Buck Owens, continuing his climb to the top of the country heap with "Foolin' Around," is a regular on the Saturday evening "Fresno Barn" over KEAP. Eddie Briggs, KEAP jockey, journeys to Nashville Jan 27 to be honored as "Mr. Dee Jay U.S.A." Eddie is plugging demos by a Fresno lad named Lonnie Tatum, whom Eddie describes as having a combination Ray Price-Charlie Walker style. Hope it's clear to you.

Paul "Mississippi" Simpkins, chief platter spinner on 50,000 watt WBAM-Montgomery, Ala., reports in that a gala "Opry" package, comprised of Ferlin Husky, Cowboy Copas, Hank Locklin, Roy Drusky and Patsy Cline drew a capacity crowd at the mammoth coliseum in Montgomery. The show was promoted by Simpkins and booked through H. N. Tillman of Panama City, Fla. ... We learned from Tillman Franks that Billie Jean Horton, Johnny Horton's widow, has waxed a disk for the 20th Fox label. Tillman also informs us that Tommy Tomlinson is still in the hospital but doing well. And to be on the lookout for a disk Tommy waxed with Jerry Kennedy before the accident. The sides, "The New Wildwood Flower" and "South," will be released on Mercury. ... Claude Caviness, west coast representative for Pamper Music, has returned to his Pico Rivera headquarters in Calif. ... Jimmy Brogdon, doing the promo work for Rose Maddox's "I Want to Live Again" b/w "Kissing My Pillow," is in the process of compiling a mailing list of all country music disk jockies. After all, without the deejays, says Jimmy, we can't operate. Jockies can get on Jimmy's list by writing him at Box 294, Oceanside, Calif. ... The newly-formed Buck Owens fan club will soon head-quarter in San Diego as soon as prexy Mary Moore gets settled. The gal wrote us enroute out west to look Buck's Capitol album due out the first of February.

An Indirect Way To Increase Sales

A New York distributor with a reputation for constantly pursuing new ways and means of improving his business, which happens to be the sale of Seeburg phonographs, recently followed another tack and decided that any help given an operator in the conduct of his business would indirectly result in greater sales volume for his firm, assuming that a portion of increased operator profits would ultimately be used for the purchase of additional phonographs. Meyer Parkoff, the Seeburg distributor referred to here, arranged an operator forum and invited three guest speakers from the accounting, finance and credit fields.

The session was to be held in the evening, all operators were invited to hear the lectures which would be followed by question and answer periods, and the discussions would center around the direct application of these three fields to the operating business. No sales messages were planned nor were they included in the evening program in any way. The invitations were mailed and Parkoff and his Atlantic New York Corporation executive staff awaited the response. To almost everyone's surprise, between sixty and seventy operators turned out for the forum which lasted from 6:00 PM until shortly before midnight. The idea had clicked. Evidently the operators were interested in accounting principles as they pertained to their own business. They indicated a high degree of interest when procedures to establish and improve credit standing with local money lending firms were outlined. And the information imparted to the coinmen concerning legal and banking procedures appeared to be invaluable.

The point is, the coinmen were interested enough to respond to the meeting which amounted to a seminar on better business practices. There is obviously a weakness in the average operator's background which can be strengthened.

With interest running this high in New York, perhaps it would be to the advantage of other distributors and/or associations in other sections of the country to institute similar sessions. The coinman who knows more about being a successful businessman stands a better chance of being a more successful operator and the entire industry will eventually benefit.

MOA Exhibit Space Goes On Sale As Miller Plans Miami '61 Show

Ratajack To Open Chicago Office February 1st
May Confab Will Include All Types Equipment

GEORGE A. MILLER

OAKLAND, CALIF.—George A. Miller, National President and Managing Director of the Music Operators of America, Inc., announced last week that formal notification of exhibit space was sent to all prospective exhibitors at the MOA Convention which is scheduled to be held at Miami's Deauville Hotel, May 15-17.

"MOA will go all out to make this the most exciting and profitable convention for the manufacturers of automatic phonographs and auxiliary equipment, the record industry, and all other coin operated amusement device manufacturers," said Miller last week from his California offices.

"Our Convention arrangements are quite thorough this year, as always, and in one instance we have assigned Willie Blatt, popular Miami coinman, to serve as Chief Coordinator between myself in California and Ed Ratajack in Chicago. Ratajack will move to Chicago on February 1, 1961 and immediately set up quarters as Managing Director and Coordinator.

"Exhibit space is being offered, as in past years, on a first-come, first-served basis," stated Miller, "A number of exhibitors who have displayed merchandise for the past seven or eight years have already requested their usual locations on the exhibit floor."

Banquet tickets for the final evening of the three day affair will go on sale after February 1st. Exhibit space and journal advertising rates are the same as last year.

"Ed Ratajack, after setting up his Chicago offices, will contact all exhibitors and start the ball rolling toward what we expect to be the most successful convention we have ever staged. The new site, the addition of various type manufacturers of other equipment, and the early indications, all point to another sell-out," concluded Miller.

Bear Calls New Wurlitzer "Most Uniquely Designed Phono Ever Produced" As Op Showings Start

New Cabinet, Reverbrasonic Unit, Music Bargain
Device, 33-45 Intermix Among New Features

NORTH TONAWANDA, N.Y.—The Wurlitzer Company has selected the week beginning January 9th for the introduction of its new line of coin-operated phonographs and remote equipment. The model designation "2500" covers three different mechanisms. A 200 selection with an even number designation "2500," a 100 selection designated Model "2510," and a 104 selection known as Model "2504." Each of the three models is offered with a choice of stereophonic or monophonic sound systems and is supplemented with a complete line of remote equipment including wall boxes and floor, wall or corner auxiliary speakers.

In making the announcement of the showings which will be participated in by all Wurlitzer Distributors throughout the United States, Robert (Bob) H. Bear, Sales Manager, said, "This year we are offering operators the most uniquely designed phonograph ever produced by our industry. Its crisp, clean styling introduces a new motif to automatic phonograph design. It is the ultimate in high earning automatic music. Operators who purchase this striking new model will find that no other phonograph can even approach the Wurlitzer Model '2500' for sheer play promoting beauty."

New Cabinetry

"Our cabinetry this year is a departure from previous designs. Its eye-catching appeal cannot go unnoticed. Symphonic blending of shimmering gold and gleaming chrome commands attention. Patrons are impelled to play it. This reception should ensure the absolute all time high in phonograph earning power. I urge every operator to become acquainted with the new Wurlitzer line for 1961. Here are a choice of phonographs which are sure to produce an improved profit picture from any locations in which they are installed.

"The new Wurlitzer styling is immediately evident on viewing the phonograph. A unique 'floating dome' cradles the title strips in specific, programmed sections, readily visible and legible for patron selection. Selector buttons, too, are cleverly edge-lighted and readily accessible at finger-tip height.

Illumination Changeable

"The grille displays a Gothic simplicity, with a rod and bell pattern that delights the eye and provides a three-dimensional effect against a sturdy chromed steel background. This reflective grille is designed to be colorstyled for any location. The soft-rose illumination can be varied to gold or blue simply by changing the internal color shields.

"The '2500' Cabinet is custom-crafted, using the newest metals and alloys. Heavy chrome plating complements satiny aluminum extrusions, resulting in a clean, airy appearance. Cabinet sides are constructed of fine woods with applied, soft-grained finish. Coupled to these is a full width sounding board that houses the speakers and enhances the tone for which Wurlitzer is justly famous," continued Bear.

"The entire phonograph is immediately accessible for service. The dome lifts to a high position on a single latch, allowing quick adjustments for tone-arm and turntable. From the rear, durable, stamped steel panels permit free and easy access to all interior areas. The Wurlitzer Carousel mechanism incorporates continuing improvements as the result of time-tested operation. Maximum dependability and low cost service are assured.

Stereo and Hi-Fi

"In all three models of 200, 104 and 100 selection phonographs, there is a choice of Wurlitzer true Stereophonic Sound or wide range High Fidelity. Any model can play stereophonic records or monophonic records intermixed with the assurance of long life from either type disk. This is accomplished by the use of the long-playing sonotone stylus which is standard on all models.

ROBERT H. (BOB) BEAR

"To ensure extra patron appeal," continued Bear, "Wurlitzer is offering a reverbrasonic unit which can be simply installed on any one of the new models. This device is designed for quick plug-in attachment and gives the effect of concert hall realism and full-bodied tone to any record.

"In addition to the other built-in features, Wurlitzer '2500' Phonographs can play 3 and 45 rpm records intermixed automatically. This device which may be installed on any of the new models is similar to one pioneered by Wurlitzer in 1951 to assist operators in the transition from ten inch 78 r.p.m. records of that period to the 45 and 33 seven inch records then coming into prominence. Whenever there are sufficient 33 records being produced to be an important factor in our industry, the two speed record player assembly may be installed. This application to the changer assembly permits handling the 33 speed in exactly the same manner as the 45, and uses the same spindle and the same pick-up arm and stylus. With this adapter records may be intermixed in any manner in the phonograph and still play with the assurance of accurate turntable speed and full tonal fidelity," concluded Bear.

Move Surprises

Wurlitzer indicates that other surprises for operators are in store upon their visit to the Wurlitzer Distributor in their area. These include a rapid record selecting "Music Bargain" device which will stimulate play in a fast moving location and insure increased revenue.

Wurlitzer continues to offer specially designed wall boxes for each of its three models, and a full line of speakers which include a floor console Model '5122,' Wurlitzer Stereo Extender Speaker Model '5125' and Wurlitzer Stereo Directional Speaker Model '5126' which are sold only in pairs, a heavy duty wall speaker Model '5123' and a wide range corner speaker Model '5124' which contain specially engineered tone chambers to enhance the music range.

Wurlitzer showings will be conducted from Jan. 9 thru 13th. Representatives of Wurlitzer Sales Department and engineers of the field service staff will visit distributorships during the week to answer specific questions and fully acquaint local sales and service personnel with the important new potential included in these Wurlitzer products.

CPA and SLA Reps Address Coinmen

Ops Get Depreciation, Insurance, Tax Pointers During Atlantic Op Forum

NEW YORK—Operators from the New York-New Jersey area were advised last week on methods of using depreciation for further expansion, how to use tax free dollars to buy additional equipment, and proper utilization of the Psuedo Corporation tax laws designed to permit small businessmen the advantage of a corporation while filing tax returns as individuals. All of this information was imparted to coinmen during Atlantic New York Corporation's second Operator Forum which was held in the Seeburg distributor's showrooms Thursday evening, January 5.

Sixty-five operators attended the session which featured two guest speakers from the business world—Joseph Klein, CPA and President of Klein and Zeigler, local accounting firm; and Albert Fein, former Commissioner of Investigation for the State Liquor Authority. The meeting lasted until shortly before midnight and was a strong follow-up to the first Operator Forum conducted on December 5, which received attention from leading coin machine firms across the nation. Thursday evening's meeting attracted Jack Gordon, Vice-President of The Seeburg Corporation who flew in from Chicago to attend the second meeting after hearing of the success of the first. Bill Prutting, Seeburg regional rep, and Arnold Silverman, Seeburg sales promotion head were also present. Bob Jones, Redd Distributing Co., Inc.,

Boston, flew down for the event. Meyer Parkoff, Atlantic head, arranged the session and sponsored the evening's activities which started with refreshments. Parkoff originally planned on presenting three separate forums. Last week's meeting was the second such forum. He advised that a third Operator Forum was being planned on ways and means of promoting within the location. Date of this meet is to be announced.

The session resulted in heated discussion for the better part of the evening and left the coinmen talking depreciation, taxes, expansion and contracts, when they left. Klein, in discussing the benefits of certain tax procedures, explained the Psuedo Corporation tax laws and presented a clear picture of what a small businessman can do under the present tax set-up. He went into the subject of depreciation and presented examples of how tax free dollars can be used by operators to improve present routes. Klein also discussed corporation insurance benefits and proper use of specific laws permitting businessmen advantages of corporation insurance with benefits of individual policies.

Fein, who has spent many years with the State Liquor Authority, suggested that operators organize and meet regularly with SLA representatives to discuss their problems. He also advised the coinmen to look into the possibilities of strengthening present location contracts so that the location owner receives more protection but also places the operator in a more substantial position to issue loans to locations and conduct business on a more secure level. Questions and answers were a part of the evening long session.

Parkoff, analyzing the results of the first two forums advised that should operator interest continue at a high peak, future forums will be presented. The first meeting embraced basic business practices, last week's session included business relations insofar as taxes and insurance are concerned. The third forum is expected to include the actual relationship with the location owner via promotion ideas designed to be mutually beneficial.

Gottlieb Releases 'Foto Finish' 1-Plyr.

NATE GOTTLIEB

CHICAGO—Nate Gottlieb, D. Gottlieb & Company, this city, announced the new "Foto Finish" single player pinball amusement game last week. In releasing the game Gottlieb pointed up two separate features in "Foto Finish."

He said: "We again offer the nation's operators the highest degree in designing and creativity in Gottlieb's ultra-modern cabinet styling, with high gloss stainless steel molding and other appointments. This finish is not only durable, but ageless; and includes all of the beauty and luster incorporated into Gottlieb's futuristic 'New Look' styling throughout.

"Another attractive feature in the 'Foto Finish' cabinetry," he continued, "is the beautiful tapered highly styled lightbox, which certainly accentuates the ultra-modern appearance in our new design, we like to refer to as 'Tomorrow's Design Today!'"

"The second, and certainly a most important feature," Gottlieb added, "is the exciting horse race playing theme in 'Foto Finish.' With this feature the amusement operator is assured of the most attractive player appeal, and couple this with the exquisite cabinet styling and the operator is further assured of greater profits through added interest, and the ease of attracting 10 cent play in all markets."

In detailing the scoring features in "Foto Finish" Nate Gottlieb made particular mention of the "fascinating carry-over feature which continues the horse race from game to game"—(thus inducing continuous play to complete the game). Not only does the player have the supreme suspense of bringing his horse (on the lightbox) in as the winner, but he has the added suspense of the Gottlieb exclusive "Score to Beat" panel on the light-box (alongside of his own score).

Other scoring innovations in "Foto Finish" include the center hole spotting feature which advances 1, 2, 3 or 4 horses and scores 100 points. The top rollovers advance horses to the finish line. Bringing in all 4 horses scores the "Special" A-B-C-D targets and the rollover feature lights the center hole for the "Special" and "Super" score.

Other Gottlieb scoring features which have maintained excellent play appeal throughout the past several years are included in "Foto Finish"; such as the Gottlieb "Match Feature," "Score to Beat" panel, super powered skill flippers, and several cyclonic kickers placed in key positions on the playfield.

Gottlieb advised that the "Hard-Cote," colorful finish on the surface of the playfield extends playboard life to an all time high. There are also hard chrome finish corner castings, as well as other notable appurtenances assuring durability.

Runyon Hosts 350 At Employees Party

NEWARK, N.J. — Runyon Sales Company hosted more than 350 guests on Friday evening, December 23, when employees of the music and games distributor were treated to a gala holiday party at the Olde Colonial Inn here. The occasion is an annual event and the staffs of the firm's New York, New Jersey and Connecticut offices were all present along with invited guests and friends. Cocktails were followed by a soup-to-nuts dinner and entertainment was provided by a program of professional showmen. All wives of the employees received special Christmas gifts which were personally presented by Barney Sugerman and Abe Green, co-owners of the firm.

A large group of employees are a result of a broad business activity conducted by Runyon. The firm represents AMI, Bally, Irving Kaye, and Keeney in the three-state territory and also conducts an export division which ships to more than thirty countries. The Runyon parts department ships both domestically and overseas and will issue a 1961 parts Catalog this month.

Runyon also conducts a vast operation consisting of more than 3000 machines including music, games, candy, kiddie rides and separate vending operations and background music systems.

In its twenty third year of development Runyon added more than 50 employees to a constantly growing list. More than 200 people are presently in its employ. The firm is a leading member of NCMMA, MOA, NYSPR, and is extremely active in the support of social and religious programs throughout the states currently being serviced with its facilities.

Barney Sugerman, Runyon Pres., visits with guests during Holiday Party for employees.

Morris Rood and Lou Wolberg, Runyon execs., (partly hidden) enjoy the festivities.

Perry Lowengrub, Runyon sales rep. and Dave Stern, Seacoast Distributors, in nearby Elizabeth, chat.

Dancing was a big attraction to the employees who attended with their wives.

Seeburg To Distribute Spoken Word LP Via 33 Singles

NEW YORK—It appears as if spoken word LP comedians will continue making sales progress during 1961 after making 1960 THE year for successful LP sales on such spoken word comedy efforts by Shelley Berman, Woody Woodbury, Lenny Bruce, Mort Sahl, Bob Newhart, and others, many of whom have enjoyed not only one but several big-sellers as indicated even on this week's Top Selling Album Charts.

As reported last week by Seeburg's Arnold Silverman, sales promotion manager, the firm has contracted with Ember Records to use the recording firm's current spoken word LP, "The Humorous World Of Justin Wilson," newest of the comedy disks but one that shows signs of succeeding in the footsteps of the established comics mentioned earlier.

Silverman, constantly in search of LP material for use on Seeburg juke boxes via the phono manufacturer's current 33 single campaign, came upon the Ember LP after hearing sales reports and comments from various Seeburg distributors, with whom he is in contact every week.

"H. A. Franz called me from Dallas," stated Silverman last week after signing with Ember Records to have the 12" disks pressed in packages of five 7" singles for juke box programming at 33 rpm, "and asked if we had any intentions of programming spoken word LP's in view of the success they've been having. He mentioned that the Justin Wilson LP was selling very well in his vicinity and suggested we look into the possibilities of using it on the Seeburg '61 phonos.

Other areas of the country indicated the same feeling. We thought it was a good idea, and we set a mutually satisfactory delivery date with Ember Records for delivery of the disks to our Seeburg distributors." Delivery is expected in one week.

Actually, the Justin Wilson LP will probably be the first spoken word record of its kind ever programmed on juke boxes. None of the previous spoken word hits have been released commercially in 45 rpm and none have been pressed in 33 single. The whole project may turn the tavern into a scene that could resemble the living rooms of millions of homes just fifteen years ago when all America listened to the radio. Only this time listeners who arrive late can always hear the beginning for another dime!

De-Perri Celebrates 25th Anniversary Serving Coin Machine - Vending Trade

PERRY WACHTEL

NEW YORK—De-Perri Advertising Inc. is celebrating its Twenty Fifth Anniversary this month and Perry Wachtel, President of the advertising agency which has specialized in conducting promotion campaigns for coin machine and vendible product manufacturers, distributors and suppliers, has no intention of stopping now.

In his mid-forties, even after 25 years in business, Wachtel currently handles a major portion of the many coin machine accounts in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Connecticut, with several clients even further away from the agency's headquarters on New York's east side.

"We have continued to serve the local coin machine distributor just as we did 25 years ago but at the same time have also developed certain accounts to the point where they rank among the industry's leaders," stated Wachtel last week during an Anniversary-Christmas celebration in the agency's new offices located at 141 E. 44th St.

Pepsi-Cola is probably the largest vendible product account on the De-Perri roster. The agency conducts most of the soft drink firm's special promotions in the vending machine market where Pepsi has had phenomenal success during the past ten years. De-Perri also serves the Continental Vending Machine Company, one of the nation's leading manufacturers of cigarette, coffee, premix and hot food machines.

Names familiar to the entire music and games industry are also serviced daily by the agency—Mike Munves Corp., Atlantic New York Corp., Atlantic Records, Inc., Scott Crosse Co., Active Amusement Machines, Inc., Intl. Amusement Co., Irving Kaye Co., R. H. Belam Co., Inc., Leslie One-Stop Distributors, Eastern Music Systems Corp., Rake Coin Machine Exchange, Inc., and literally dozens of others. The advertising firm also services a broad slate of other major vendible product manufacturers including American Chic Co., Tenco, Inc., and Federal Sweets & Biscuit Co.

Perry Wachtel, in addition to specializing in the coin-operated end of the business, having worked on his very first account (U-Need-Pak) with Joe Orleck, Publisher of The Cash Box who was then an advertising salesman, also specializes in fathering girls—he has three daughters, Stephanie, Lyn and Robin. Wachtel's wife's name, Dee, makes up the first part of the company name, De-Perri. His own first name combined to form the corporate name as it remains today. When Perry isn't turning out industrial advertising he can be found on the Westchester golf links where he is consistent with a highly respected score.

"It's been a wonderful twenty-five years," said Wachtel last week, looking back over the years to his first account, his first commission, and his first 'rent-free' office (located in the rear of a local print shop), "but what has made it a pleasant tour has been the many friends I've met along the way. To this day many of our family's closest friends are the people De-Perri does business with. Who could ask for anything more?"

Williams Ships 'Magic Clock' 2-Plyr.

New Game Has Moving Target, Clock Time Features

CHICAGO—Samuel Lewis, vice president in charge of sales for Williams Electronic Manufacturing Corporation, this city, announced this past week that Williams heralds in the New Year of 1961 with the introduction to the trade of an excitingly appointed new competitive, 2-player pinball amusement game, "Magic Clock."

"Magic Clock," which features the suspense of "timed shots" for highest scoring, presents a continuation of the dramatic "Styling of the 60's" in a uniquely designed and "magnificently constructed" cabinet.

This exclusive Williams cabinet—first introduced during 1960—has met considerable acceptance and widespread interest among the nation's operators, according to Lewis, and assures the Williams management of continued and unprecedented success in 1961.

"We are certainly delighted and proud to release Williams' new 'Magic Clock' at the beginning of what promises to be a fine sales year for us," Lewis declared.

"Throughout the past several years we have striven to produce for operators in this country and overseas the best possible amusement games; and, at the lowest possible cost to them," he continued.

"During this period of time Williams Electronic Mfg. has expanded its production, designing, shipping and engineering facilities at great cost towards this development of only the finest games for all markets.

"Now," he said, "we are at the pinnacle of this development, and 'Magic Clock' represents the height of our ability to produce the finest in amusement equipment."

Lewis went into detail to explain "Magic Clock's" most exciting scoring and playing features. Briefly, he explained that a clockface dial on the playfield offers a new element of suspense, since it is featured with "an amazing new 'moving target'" (bullseye), which tests the aiming skill of the players, and helps them to develop a sense of timing.

When the player "hits" the target he scores from 50 to 100 points. A "miss" earns the player one point. As the player advances the clock he advances the high score possibilities.

SAM LEWIS

The clock on the playfield re-sets automatically for each ball put into play. This type of play is referred to by Lewis and Williams Electronic's president Sam Stern as the "Race the Clock" feature.

Besides the aforementioned features, cabinetry, as well as Williams' "2-way match play," and 3 or 5 ball replay awards, "Magic Clock" also offers several of Williams recent play and scoring innovations to insure top collection earnings in locations everywhere.

Lewis expressed his confidence again in the fact that the beautifully appointed and illustrated cabinet, backglass and playfield will start the New Year off with peak sales and great promise of a continuation of this Williams Electronic resolve to give the nation's operators the best in amusement games, priced to please all operators.

Sample shipments of "Magic Clock" 2-player pingame were sent out to Williams' distributors last week. They are now on display in showrooms and ready for demonstration, Lewis said in conclusion.

NAMA Publishes 1960 Vending Directory

CHICAGO—The latest edition of the "complete source book" of automatic merchandising is now available, according to the National Automatic Merchandising Association, publishers of the volume.

Entitled "Directory of Automatic Merchandising—1960 Convention Issue," the book contains all the facts, figures and trends about the fast-growing automatic vending industry in 264 illustrated pages.

Listed in the Directory are vending machine manufacturing companies, vendable product suppliers, manufacturers of component parts and services and operating company members of N.A.M.A. Each listing includes comprehensive information about the types of products manufactured or supplied and gives the names of key company executives.

In addition, the book contains feature articles on various aspects of the industry, statistical tables on vending machine shipments for 1959 and earlier years and excerpts from Price Waterhouse & Co.'s Operating Ratio Report for the vending industry.

EASTERN FLASHES

Coinmen across the nation awaited the arrival of the new Wurlitzer phonograph Model "2500" this week after announcements that the machine would be introduced via distrib showings starting January 9th and continuing for the remainder of the week. Model Vending in Philly, according to Bill Slawe, is slated to hold a huge showing, its first for the Wurlitzer phono, after many years of operating vast vending routes in the Philly area.

Early reports from visiting ops along Tenth Avenue indicate a big turnout for the second Atlantic operator forum scheduled as this is written to be held Thurs., Jan. 5th. The first session which included talks by leading banking, finance and credit figures attracted close to 70 ops and it was hoped that this turnout would be increased after several requests by operators to have Atlantic repeat the performance originally held Dec. 5th. First meet held same attraction (banking, finance and credit) so last week's session which was held just as we went to press should have been a big success.

Meanwhile, at Atlantic NY Corp., business moves swiftly as Meyer Parkoff and Murray Kaye advise that record packages for the phono's Artist of the Week program were coming thru "fast and furious." The Seeburg promotion head, Arnold Silverman, is busier than ever calling on record firms here in N. Yawk then bouncing back to Philly to spend some time with his expectant wife and then, more than likely, taking a phone call from bossman Jack Gordon in the Chi office who could very well instruct Silverman to catch the first plane west. Some routine, but its paying off for the Seeburg distrib. They're sharing the best LP material available and its coming off as 33's for the jukes. Latest Silverman coup is the first spoken word recording ever programmed on a juke box—"The Humorous World of Justin Wilson." The new spoken word-comedy-LP was a Cash Box Pick Of The Week last week in the Album Review section. Silverman grabbed the Ember disk for 33 treatment after checking his distrib around the nation. H. A. Franz, for instance, notified the promo man that the LP was "selling right out of the retail shops in Dallas." Several indications such as this and Seeburg had made the deal for the first spoken word LP ever to be programmed on a coin-operated phono. Disk will be released in a few weeks.

Mike Munves crowds the sidewalk space on 42nd and 10th Ave. with incoming arcade equipment received in trade for some machines shipped earlier in the week. Some of the rides are ready for the junk pile, others look pretty good and will stand up better after they get the revamp treatment and then of course, the rest will come off the reconditioning line spanning new and ready for sale to the trade next spring when reconditioned rides will be just the thing that are in demand. Joe Munves contemplates leaving immediately for London, Europe and the ATE Coin Show. The arcade firm will show once again during this year's European confab which is already sold out in exhibit space. Several coinmen have indicated that they will make the trek to London to visit the show and contact foreign coinmen but as yet, the number interested doesn't approach last year's figure when England represented a virgin territory. Today, anyone with an export department is doing business throughout the UK. Willie Gaines, Munves top repair mechanic, off on a cruise southward.

Several ops stroll Tenth Avenue, most from the NYC area, but many in from upstate. Gertrude Browne, checks the distrib for certain parts, makes her rounds as per usual this Tues. PM; Harry Brodsky stops to talk about replacement of older equipment and the potential of greater collections; Irving Morris, Gottlieb distrib, in from Newark to wish New Yorkers a happy year during '61, and of course, always smiling; Dave Lowy, MJL Operating, advises that the new quarters further up the Avenue are really shaping up nicely; Mike Mulqueen down from Walden and into various showrooms to say 'hello' and then make the trip back again; Ray Knoss, smiling and happy, after enjoying a successful year, or at least it appeared that way as Ray had a kind word for everyone, before heading northward to the showrooms for additional equipment; Tom Mahaffey, traveled down from Scarsdale to meet with wholesalers and plan equipment purchases; Walter DeEgidio, another visiting op during this first business week of the year; Hy Jaffe, a friendly face in the crowd on 43rd and 10th; Stanley Hirsch drops onto coinrow for business and not too much pleasure with several chores on his mind which will take up the entire day.

Irving Holzman, United East Coast Corp. accepting congrats on his new firm, also pushing the United "Line Up" and "Dixie" out onto the market with demand high for these machines which both offer new intricate scoring features. Whitey and Lou Druckman handle incoming equipment offered in trade and shoot the machines thru to the reconditioning dept in the rear of the showrooms. Special sale Jan. 10th to Feb. 10th when Holzman clears equipment with a month-long sale.

Al Simon, Albert Simon, Inc., tells us the new ChiCoin "Ray Gun" is going over big with ops. "We've shipped plenty of 'em and at the height of the holiday season when we really couldn't spend too much time promoting them," says Al. Sales are expected to reach a peak now that the holidays are over and business is returning to normal. Al D'Inzillo reports solid sales on the Rock-Ola phono line and while the 200 and 120 selections are obviously enjoying another good year the sales crew report fine response to the newly introduced 100-selection wall phono. Stan Nankoff covers the sales territory for the Albert Simon organization and while he spends much time on Rock-Ola sales, according to Stan, "I sell the entire Albert Simon machine line to operators in the Albert Simon sales territory!" And that's being specific! Stan's doing a fine job, according to Al S.

"Shugy" spent time in the Runyon Sales New York office last week and almost all of the time was spent on the telephone. "I can talk on the telephone in the Newark office without coming all the way into the City!" quotes the Runyon boss who had just returned from UJA work in preparation for the '61 drive. "Kempy" in town to handle visiting ops before departing for the upstate territory. Morris Rood looking chipper after a holiday spent mostly at home, and Perry Lowengrub spends time in the NYC showrooms to boost sales on the AMI phonos and the Bally shuffles. Big Christmas party in Runyon's NJ plant left employees and visiting guests with smiles and a full stomach—both solids and liquids. Runyon's switchboard gal, Dee, trying her hand at skiing after horse back riding in the warmer weather. Shaping up as a triple threat. Lou Wolberg and Lou Schrieber, with heads together balancing the books. Talk about enthusiasm. Myron Sugerman, Runyon export head, tells us the new 1961 Parts Catalog will be off the press and in the mails this week.

Abe Lipsky, Libra Distribs, trying to keep up with son Bert, who put in a few days work with his Dad before returning to college. Abe was pretty fast as a DeWitt Clinton H. S. lineman but Dad is slowing down these days. Must be gettin' old! Harry Koepfel moving used equipment for immediate delivery here and overseas.

Coinmen in this area are rallying to the call as expressed in the editorial "A NOTE OF WARNING" in the January 7 issue of The Cash Box. They strongly resent the unfair stigma being heaped on their shoulders by irresponsible government agents who associate the overwhelming majority of hard working, law abiding coinmen with a minute segment of illegitimate people.

For those aroused operators, manufacturers and distributors who seek positive action we can only repeat the words of Rep. Howard W. Smith, Chairman of the Rules Committee of the House of Representatives, when he said: "It is the privilege and the right—or perhaps duty—of any citizen who is interested in legislation, to express his views. He expresses them to the congressman, and the congressman from that may get some useful information. Then he (the congressman) expresses his views in Congress. That is the way legislation is made." There, you have it.

Naturally the Coin Machine Council will have something to say about the state of things to come during 1961 in that organization's public relations drive. This group of dedicated coinmen, supported in its policies by its agency, the Public Relations Board, Inc., intends to step up its PR activities considerably during 1961. Plans were being formulated during an executive meeting held at the Morrison Hotel, Thursday, January 5. Among those in attendance were Lou Casola, Herb Jones, Herb Oettinger, Ed Ratajack, Sam Lewis, Art Weinand, Bob Slifer, Clinton S. Pierce, Lester Montooth and Andy Hesch.

Excitement prevailed at United Manufacturing this past week when Bill DeSelm, executive vice prexy of sales, released the new "Line Up" shuffle alley and "Dixie" bowler featuring a new concept in scoring called "Hi-Score." Immediate sales reaction, according to Bill, indicates that United has a sensational winning combination in both amusement games. Herb Oettinger, busier than ever these days, was out of the town just before the New Year holiday, but was back in time for the festivities, and to toast the success of "Dixie" and "Line-Up." The gag making the rounds among United Mfg. brass concerns the fact that Al Thoeke, United's man-on-the-go, went through the lunch routine "with nary a customer in sight." He had lunch with his cronies t'other day (Bill DeSelm, Glenn Johnson, Ray Riehl and Howard C. Abbott) and let them know in no uncertain terms that he normally lunches only when he is entertaining his clientele.

Nate Gottlieb, D. Gottlieb & Co., announced the introduction last week of Gottlieb's new "Foto Finish" pinball game to the trade. While Nate and Judd Weinberg are "watching the store" Dave Gottlieb, Alvin Gottlieb and brother Sol Gottlieb are manning the helm on the Gottlieb yacht "Flipper" and casting for sailfish (or whatever it is they generally cast for!) . . . The new year is coming in strong for Chicago Dynamic Industries, according to sales director Art Weinand. The action on Chicago Coin's "Ray Gun" has been increasing in intensity, along with sales for ChiCoin's "6 Game Bowler" and "Duchess" bowler.

Bally's Bill O'Donnell and Herb Jones are pleased as punch over their scheduling of the initial Bally conducted service school at Peach State Trading Co. in Columbia, S.C., Jan. 10, 11 and 12. Bally's field service engineer, Paul Calamari, will conduct the sessions, aided by Jim Faulk, manager of Peach State Trading. . . . There was great joy at J. H. Keeney & Co. over the New Year holiday as prexy Roy McGinnis returned to his home after a lengthy confinement at Columbus Hospital and minor surgery. Roy—we're happy to state—is feeling very chipper and rarin' to get back into harness. Now, muses Paul Huebsch, the Keeney entourage can go all out for a great 1961 sales campaign. . . . Empire Coin owner Gil Kitt and his sales chief, Joe Robbins, are looking forward to the "great and exciting innovations" from the factories in '61. Joe feels very confident that the "soaring Sixties" will really roar in '61. . . . Confidence for this new year reigns supreme at First Coin, where prexy Joe Kline expressed his opinion last week that all indicators point to a successful coinbiz year.

MOA prexy George A. Miller issued his first bulletin in '61 last week to urge exhibitors for the MOA conclave, only four months away (May 15, 16 and 17), to get on the ball. The convention will be held at the Deauville Hotel in Miami Beach. The bulletin was aimed at all mfrs., record companies, distribs, mfrs. of amusement machines, music equipment, vending machines, and to all other exhibitors. The MOA trio of execs hard at work to make the '61 conclave the biggest ever are Miller, managing director Ed Ratajack, and Miami Beach coordinator Willie Blatt. . . . Sam Lewis, vice president in charge of sales for Williams Electronic Mfg. Co., is mighty pleased over the reception around the country Williams' new "Magic Clock" 2-player, 5-ball pinball amusement game is racking up. It features a bright, new Williams innovation, "Moving Target," with advancements for high score potentials.

Ralph Sheffield, Hank Ross and Marcine "Iggy" Wolverton, Midway Mfg. Co. execs. toasted the great possibilities of Midway's "Shooting Gallery" gun game over the New Year. They can't think of a better way to start the new year than with such a strong selling game. . . . Ted Burrows, general manager of Seeburg's parts and service division, is keeping his staff on their toes this week getting the new plant ready for business as usual. Several months ago a destructive fire burned the parts plant out, and the parts and service facilities were severely strained. Now, however, Ted offers Seeburg's customers the best possible service. . . . Ed Ruber, Wico Corp., rallied bravely after the tragic and untimely death of his father at Christmas time, and is hard at work charting Wico's course for 1961 along with Max Wiczer and Milt Wiczer. Morrie Wiczer opines that '61 will be a big year for Wico.

Edward Doris, executive vice prexy of Rock-Ola Mfg. advised that he and his staff expect big things during 1961. Considering the acquisition of Hebel's vending facilities and the strong '60 finish of Rock-Ola's "Regis" phonograph line, Ed is counting on some powerful equipment to see him through the first quarter of the year. He is joined in his thinking by president David C. Rockola, sales director Frank Mitchell, and advertising and sales promotion director George Hincker. . . . Ted Rubey and Estelle Bye, Marvel Mfg., predict a big year at Marvel Mfg. for "Lucky Horoscope" and the parts line. . . . The first thing on the agenda at World Wide Distribs the past week was a cheery New Year greeting to coinmen everywhere from Joel Stern, Len Micon and Fred Skor. The next item was a sincere expression that '61 will offer much more coin machine action than was apparent in '60. . . . Games, Inc.'s Clarence Schuyler advised that production has been considerably stepped up on "Trail Blazer" now that all the partying has been set aside for the business at hand.

Bill Phillips, Atlas Music's road man, initiates a new series of service and sales school sessions throughout the Downstate Illinois area shortly. The first of the series will be held in Galesburg January 11. Prexy Eddie Ginsburg and Nate Feinstein and Harold Schwartz have laid the groundwork for this school plan carefully in hopes for the best possible results.

Std. Financial Resources Reach $100 Million; Firm Started With $1000 In 1932

NEW YORK—Standard Financial Corporation, New York finance house serving the coin machine industry, as a result of private financing through a group of insurance companies, reached $100 million in resources, Theodore H. Silbert, president, announced last week. Silbert pointed out that the company started with only $1,000 in 1932.

The new financing was a private sale to five insurance companies of a 15-year, $3.5 million issue of subordinated notes.

In June, 1960, Standard Financial Corporation privately placed a 5-year issue of $7 million in senior notes and $3 million in subordinated notes with a group of life insurance companies.

Standard Financial Corporation is one of the nation's leading finance, factoring and commercial installment banking companies with headquarters in New York City and offices in Los Angeles, Dallas, Philadelphia and Elmira, N.Y. The company's finance volume is currently at a rate of 1/3 billion dollars. The company's stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

New Nationwide Food Execs

CHICAGO—Two West Coast executives have been advanced to posts as regional vice presidents of Nationwide Food Service, Inc., a subsidiary of Automatic Canteen Company of America.

Charles J. Martin, Los Angeles, was named Vice President in charge of the company's North American Aviation, Inc. group of operations, centered at Los Angeles.

Joseph Smoley, Lawndale, Calif., became regional vice president heading Nationwide's other West Coast operations, including those in California, Oregon and Washington, with headquarters in Culver City, Calif.

Associated Coin Amuse. Moves

OAKLAND, CALIF.—The Associated Coin Amusement Co., Inc., this city, has advised that it will hold Open House festivities at its new quarters on Saturday, January 14, between 2:00 PM and 5:00 PM. The firm's new address is 2230 East Fourteenth St., Oakland.

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

With most operators and distributors reporting a most enjoyable time over the Holidays, the tempo along Pico Blvd. has picked-up again and a, "Let's go back to business" atmosphere seems to prevail everywhere. . . . Billy Lanz, informs they are doing a big job at American Coin Machine converting all used phonographs to a new sound attachment, giving the older juke boxes the up-to-date sound. This innovation, said Bill, is already proving popular with the operators and is causing lots of favorable comment. Bill went on to say that they are now customizing all of their equipment for exporting, as well as the domestic market. From all indications, Bill commented, 1960 has been the biggest year since American has been in business. . . . M. H. Rosenberg, owner of the Wurlitzer Distributorship in San Francisco, Emery Distributing, in town on a business and pleasure trip and stopped by at the Wurlitzer factory branch to say hello. Walt Peteet, Wurlitzer regional service manager, also in 1961 Wurlitzer phonograph is taking place this week, and extends his personal invitation to all operators in the So. Calif. area to come in and see and hear a demonstration. With this new phonograph, Ray continued, we are looking forward to a banner year at Wurlitzer. . . . However New Year's week end should more than make up for it. . . . Happy birthday to Stanley Woznak, Little Falls, Minn. . . . Ted Lawn, Minneapolis, is at Mt. Sinai Hospital recovering from a slight heart attack. Is feeling much better and should be going home next week. . . . Our deepest sympathy to Frank Phillips, Winona, Minn. on the death of his mother Christmas day. Mrs. Phillips was 82 years old and in fairly good health, suffered a stroke and passed away. . . . It seemed like father-and-son-day in town this week as Gordon Wornson and his son John, were in town as was Frank Mager and son Bill, Grand Rapids, Minn. and Joe Weber and son Dennis, Blue Earth, Minn. and Cab Anderson and son, Hudson, Wisc. . . . HOUSTON HAPPENINGS

Bill Williams, owner of Bill Williams Distributing Co., exclusive Wurlitzer distributor for Houston and San Antonio trade areas, announced a joint showing of the new model Wurlitzer phonographs by the Houston-San Antonio offices in Corpus Christi on Jan. 8th. The affair was scheduled to be held at the White Plaza Hotel and while Sunday, Jan. 8th is the official showing date, a bit of entertainment has been arranged for those who arrive on Saturday for an overnight stay. Corpus Christi, noted pleasure center, is about equally distanced from Houston and San Antonio. . . . First time we'd seen operator Gene Milburn in maybe 20 years and the guy certainly does not look old enough to be that old. However he was one of the youngest way back yonder when Houston Operators Association was the nation's largest, numerically and percentage-wise and packed plenty of wallop. . . . Officials of H. A. Franz & Co., exclusive distributors for the Seeburg Corporation, confidentially predicted they would occupy their brand new ultra modern building now under construction at Smith and Dennis Streets sometime in January. H. A. Franz, head of the firm, said the new plant would cover 10,000 square feet, 3600 of which would be occupied by offices, showroom parts dept. and shop.
